New State Maps Now Available

The official 2016 Tennessee Transportation Map is now available for travelers. There are some new additions to the 2016 map. State Route 222 in Haywood County is being rerouted and improved in the Mega site area. I-269 is open to traffic in Tennessee and will be designated as an interstate when Mississippi completes their section. There is also a new exit to access the solar panel farm off I-40 in Haywood County. "The state map is a valuable tool for motorists, and can assist them in planning their route through Tennessee," said TDOT Commissioner John Schroer. "The map is free and is also available at welcome centers and rest areas across the state." The 2016 state map can also be downloaded from the TDOT web site at <http://www.tn.gov/tdot/topic/maps-state>. Pre-printed maps may be ordered from TDOT online at <http://www.tn.gov/tdot/topic/map-ordering> or by mailing a request to:

Tennessee Department of Transportation
505 Deaderick Street
James K. Polk Building, Suite 900
Nashville, Tennessee 37243-1402

Individuals may request up to five free maps. Organizations and schools may order up to one hundred maps for their use. The Official 2016 Tennessee Transportation Map is a joint effort between TDOT and the Tennessee Department of Tourist Development.

Health Marketplace "Open Enrollment" Deadline Approaching

Consumers who have not yet signed up for health insurance through the government's Health Insurance Marketplace still have time—but two important deadlines are fast approaching. A plan must be selected and the premium paid by January 15 to obtain coverage by February 1; for coverage effective March 1, the plan and premium must be finalized by January 31. McKenzie Regional Hospital continues to offer free application assistance to help individuals evaluate insurance option on the Marketplace and complete their application forms. However, the certified assistors are encouraging those needing help to reserve appointments early, as schedules typically book quickly this month. Call us today at 731-352-6635 to make an appointment.

Meeting Set for Info on USDA Home Loans with City Lots

U.S. Department of Agriculture Rural Development (RD) and the City of Paris announced a public meeting that will take place on Thursday, Jan. 21, at the Paris City Hall at 6 p.m. in the meeting room. The meeting will provide information for anyone interested in obtaining a loan through USDA-RD to construct a home on designated empty city lots. USDA-RD Area Specialist Mary Hickman recently met with the City of Paris and Paris Housing Corporation to discuss final plans on a project that will help local residents have an opportunity to build a new home on empty city lots through USDA RD's Single Family Housing Direct Home Loan program. "Mary approached me with an idea to collaborate with USDA to offer vacant lots owned by the City to qualified individuals or families for new home construction. This would provide housing for applicants who might not otherwise be able to afford to build,” said Paris City Manager Kim Foster. “It’s a win/win for the City and we are excited to be working with USDA on this project.” The partnership is a way for the City of Paris to liquidate some of its empty city lots while building a stronger community and increasing the tax base. The lots will be offered to qualified USDA RD loan holders for $1 to $10. USDA RD’s Single Family Housing Direct program provides low-interest rate loans for low-income families and individuals. In partnership with the City and the Paris Housing Corporation, those who qualify for a Single Family Housing Direct loan may be able to find an affordable place to build a new home. Excited by the potential to help the community, they are considering the possibility of researching other agencies to bring into the partnership to enhance the program. USDA Rural Development is moving investments to rural America with housing, business and infrastructure loans and grants to create jobs and strengthen rural economies with an emphasis to assist areas of persistent poverty. Since 2009, the agency has assisted more than 1.5 million Tennessee families and businesses in 230 communities in all 95 counties of Tennessee, investing more than $5.4 billion through affordable loans, loan guarantees, and grants. Preheat oven to 375 degrees F. Grease a 2 quart casserole dish. Layer potatoes and onions into the casserole dish. Combine soup, milk and pepper in a bowl, then pour soup mixture over the potatoes and onions. The soup mixture should almost cover the potatoes and onion, if it does not add extra milk. Cover dish and bake in preheated 375 degrees F oven for 60 minutes or until the potatoes are cooked through. At 30 minutes, remove the casserole from the oven and stir once before returning the dish to the oven. Remove from oven and serve.

Your Weekly Love Horoscope

Aries
March 21-April 19

You can't contain your excitement today as the obstacles to pursuing your happiness seem to fall away. You may be buzzing with anticipation about an upcoming adventure, but satisfaction isn't as close as you think now. Don't be flippant about the complexities you must manage or you could miss the nuggets of wisdom waiting to be discovered. If you're truly serious about your goals, you just might be able to execute your plans flawlessly. Humility is the ticket to your success.

Taurus
April 20-May 20

Keeping up with your social commitments is super-stressful when there are too many demands on your time. Thankfully, you're capable of stretching beyond your usual limits today, but don't overextend too far or you will upset the delicate balance between work and play. Holding onto the spirit of the holiday season long after it has passed is a lovely goal, but don't be afraid to end the party if your common sense warns you that it's time to get back to work. The key to maintaining a healthy balance is knowing when you lost it.

Gemini
May 21-June 20

It's tempting to jump on someone's bandwagon today because you're currently more interested in enjoying yourself than with achieving success. Luckily, the Moon's presence in your 7th House of Companions amplifies the strength of another person's strategy, further enticing you to drop your previous plans. Your cooperative spirit empowers you to work seamlessly with others now; the joy of collaboration brings you more emotional satisfaction than doing something on your own.

Cancer
June 21-July 22

You're cautiously optimistic about what you can finish at work today, but your expectations might be slightly unrealistic. You don't know what unscheduled crisis might rear its ugly head, so streamline your to-do list as a proactive measure. Rather than wasting time on tasks you can't complete, focus on accomplishing the most important ones; otherwise, you could exhaust your resources before the day is done. Conserving your energy is your ace in the hole.

Leo
July 23-August 22

You are on a creative burn today with the buoyant Sagittarius Moon bouncing around in your 5th House of Self-Expression. However, you're not in the mood to perform the repetitive tasks that may still be required of you now. Be careful about reacting before you make a plan because your frustration could explode into an emotional outbreak that flips your day upside down. Practicing patience might be your greatest challenge now, but it also is the most effective weapon to combat your stress.

Virgo
August 23-September 22

You might believe you can achieve anything you focus your intention on now. Unfortunately, your schedule could fall apart at the seams if someone's need for independence clashes with your agenda. You may be required to reinvent your day on the fly or postpone tasks when something requires more time than you expected. Your immediate reaction could upset others, but your reassurances should settle them down. However, it's more important to remain true to your purpose now than to be sidetracked by anyone else.

Libra
September 23-October 22

Stuffing one more activity into your day could be the straw that breaks the camel's back. But you may not realize anything has gone wrong until after the fact. The entire house of cards might need to fall in order to alleviate the tension if you stretch your commitments too far. Even if you're confident that all is well in your world today, it's still smart to lighten your calendar before you find yourself in hot water. Sometimes saying no to one thing is really saying yes to everything else.

Scorpio
October 23-November 21

Exercising caution is wise today because the adventurous Sagittarius Moon in your 2nd House of Possessions encourages you to spend more than you should. Your discretionary funds may be more limited than you want to admit, so budgeting your resources is a strategic move. It's smarter to acknowledge how easily you can fool yourself before you end up facing an unnecessary cash crisis. Thankfully, a little sensible planning goes a long way to ease your concerns. A penny saved is a penny earned.

Sagittarius
November 22-December 21

You're surfing a wave of self-confidence, but ignoring practical details can lead you astray. Relying on your logic instead of your optimism is a good idea now, but it's not easy to maintain a balanced perspective. Your visionary powers are so strong today that you could easily trick yourself into believing you're invincible. Don't avoid reality just because it's unpleasant. Positive thinking improves the situation as long as you face the truth.

Capricorn
December 22-January 19

You prefer taking a rational approach to complicated situations, especially while the radiant Sun is shining in your sensible sign. Unfortunately, the current circumstances defy logical analysis. Instead of downplaying your creativity by trying to stay on a straight and narrow path, give yourself permission to be inspired by your imagination. Don't justify your choices to anyone today; simply trust in the process. Your intuition is a gateway to other dimensions.

Aquarius
January 20-February 18

Your dreams are the source of great inspiration but they may also lead you in a more practical direction today. Three planets lurking in your 11th House of Long-Term Goals lure you out of the present reality and into the world of possibilities. Luckily, your imaginative excursions can have a lasting influence on whatever comes next in your life. But instead of just losing yourself in fantasyland now, consciously paint your future with the colors of your mind.

Pisces
February 19-March 20

You're pretty confident about your prospects now, believing you have the ability to advance your career path simply through the power of positive thought. However, your visions might be distorted, causing you to see your future through the rose-colored glasses of your desires. Nevertheless, there's no reason to assume the worst-case scenario, either. Don't avoid difficult facts today; a reality check only heightens your chances for success.
