Hunt Without a License

Tennesseans can hunt without a license this weekend as part of the state's Free Hunting Day. On August 24, Tennessee Resources Wildlife Agency encourages regular hunters to introduce friends and family members to the outdoor sport. Free Hunting Day also marks the opening day of squirrel season and will be during the August private lands, archery-only deer season. Saturday, Tennessee residents are exempt from hunting licenses and WMA permit requirements. Many, but not all, WMAs are open to hunters looking for public access on Free Hunting Day. While there are not license requirements, the state still requires education courses to be taken. If you were born on or after January 1, 1969, you are required to complete a hunter education course. To be exempt from the course, you must purchase an apprentice license. Hunters can harvest up to 10 squirrels a day during squirrel season.

30th at the AMVETS Post 45, located at 14365 Hwy 79 in Buchanan. Dinner will begin at 6 p.m. and will include burgers and fries and desserts for a cost of $9 per person. Music will follow at 7 p.m. and will cost $4 per person for music only. Music and karaoke will be donated by Tom Evans. There will also be costume prizes along with door prizes at the event. The event will help raise funds for the Henry County children's Christmas party.

Paris Landing Arts and Crafts

Festival Vendor Space Vendor space is still available for the 2019 Paris Landing Arts & Crafts Festival that will be held on Sept. 7-8th beginning at 10 a.m. each morning at Paris Landing State Park. at 1371 Wildlife Drive in Springville, will hold a brand new Refuge Discovery Series program called “Wild Edible Plant Foray” at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 31st. People are always using their senses to experience nature and in this brand new Refuge Discovery Series Program, the Refuge is inviting everyone to come taste what nature has to offer in this “Wild Edible Plant Foray”. The Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge is excited to welcome back local foraging expert Jonathan Lodge. Beginning at 1 p.m. at the Refuge Visitor Center participants will learn about a few wild plants that are found locally that are okay to eat. From seeds to leaves, stems to fruits, you can learn what is edible...and what is not at this program. As always, Jonathan will bring an array of examples for show and tell. You might even get to sample a few of them! However, this is a discovery class only as foraging is not allowed on the refuge. The Refuge Discovery Series was created by the Friends of Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge to help the public enjoy and interact with the refuge and its wildlife. Each considered a good family activity, the series presents different wildlife related topics and guest speakers to help the public connect with nature. Hosting the program at the Refuge Visitor Center can be fun trip for families as our participants typically come early or stay to enjoy our new exhibits. The Refuge Visitor Center is open Monday – Saturday from 8:00-4:00 pm and is located at 1371 Wildlife Drive in Springville, TN. For more information about the Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge, how to become a member of the Friends of Tennessee NWR or about the refuge in general, please call the Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge Headquarters at 731-642-2091, like us on Facebook or see our website at www.fws.gov/refuge/Tennessee.

Finding the Truth

Do All By Christ's Authority

“And whatsoever ye do in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord, Jesus, giving thanks to God the father through him.” (Colossians 3:17) All reputable Greek scholars agree that “in the name of Jesus Christ” means in accordance with the command of Jesus or by his authority. “And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power (authority) is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go, ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen. (Matthew 28: 18-20)

What one does religiously must be by the authority of Christ. Anything else is disobedience and disrespect. There is no escape for the one who goes beyond the word of God, or shows disrespect for the will of Heaven. “Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.” (II John 9)

“The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.” (I Corinthians 3:20) The apostle Paul instructed, “And these things, brethren, I have transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written.” (I Corinthians 4:6)

“God, who at sundry times and divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son. (Hebrews 1:1,2a)

Human creeds have no authority and are sinful. “If any man speak let him speak as the oracles of God.” (I Peter 4:11a)

1 garlic clove, minced
1/4 cup butter, divided
1 small yellow squash, halved lengthwise and sliced
1 small zucchini, halved lengthwise and sliced
1/2 cup julienned sweet red pepper
1/2 cup julienned green pepper
1/4 cup thinly sliced onion
2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3/4 cup chicken broth
1/2 cup half-and-half cream
8 ounces angel hair pasta, cooked and drained

In the same skillet, melt remaining butter. Add flour, salt and pepper; stir to form a smooth paste. Gradually add broth. Bring to a boil; cook and stir for 2 minutes or until thickened.
