Friends of LBL Kentucky Gives

Day 2020 Faced with budget short-falls created by the shutdown of our gift shops and facilities, the Friends of Land Between the Lakes are trying something new by participating in Kentucky Gives Day, a state-wide philanthropy event planned for May 12, 2020. It is organized by the Kentucky Nonprofit Network and will give us exposure to new audiences and potential donors. The site is active and supporters may visit before May 12. There are also opportunities to offer challenges and matches to others. We need your help to maximize this opportunity by spreading the word and letting your network know that you are a supporter of the Friends of LBL. The funds we raise through this campaign will help us support our employees who continue to care for the animals at the Nature Station and Homeplace, as well as invest in preparations for re-opening safely. 1. Please visit our KY Gives Day campaign page: <https://www.kygives.org/organizations/land-between-the-lakes-association-inc> 2. Share our campaign page through social media and email to your friends, family and connections, and encourage them to help if they can. 3. Become a fundraiser for us -- Click the "Fundraise" button on our campaign page to get started! The Friends of LBL continues to provide care and feeding for the animals at the Nature Station and Homeplace, disseminate online educational content and information for the public, and make preparations needed to re-open safely for the public and our employees. Supporters can always contribute through our secure online donation website: <https://friendsofbl.org/donations/> Contact Jennifer Wheatley at jwheatley@friendsofbl.org for more information.
