What's Happening?

Relay for Life Gospel Showcase

The local Relay for Life Fundraising Team called Elizabeth's Cancer Crushers will be holding their 2nd Annual Relay for Life Gospel Showcase on Friday, January 26th at 7pm at the Krider Performing Arts Center, located at 650 Volunteer Drive in Paris. Join Elizabeth's Cancer Crushers for great music and fellowship featuring some of our area's best musicians and vocalists including Rhonda Stanton, Young at Heart, Chuck Haney, Joe & Liz Hansen, Mike Holden. Ervin & Andrea Dutton with Marley Trosper and Elizabeth Cronin will also perform. Elizabeth Cronin is a young cancer survivor from Paris with her own Relay for Life Team called Elizabeth's Cancer Crushers. The team includes family and friends who supported Elizabeth during her battle with cancer. This is the second year for The Gospel Showcase which is organized by Elizabeth's family and friends. Admission to the show cost $8 per person and children under the age of 12 get in for free. In case of inclement weather, the event will be rescheduled for Saturday, February 9th. So on Friday, January 26th join area gospel artists as they fill the house with heartfelt praises and beautiful music, and all for a wonderful cause.

Kentucky Lake Girls Softball Sign

Ups The Kentucky Lake Girls Softball League will be holding sign-ups on the Saturdays of January 27th, February 3rd and February 10th from 10am to 2pm at Hulmes Sporting Goods, located at 3735 HWY 641 in Paris. The sign-ups will be for girls ages 6u through 16u and the player fee will be $55. Hulmes will also be having a big sale on their softball equipment during signups.

Bruceton First Baptist Chili

Supper The First Baptist Church in Bruceton will be hosting a Chili Supper and Silent Bake Sale Auction on Saturday, January 27th from 4pm to 7pm at the church, which is located at 30960 Broad Street in Bruceton. The meal costs $5 per person and the silent bake auction will follow after the meal. For more information, please call 731-586-4212 or visit www.firstbaptistbruceton.com.

Heather Land "I Ain't Doing It

Show" Tickets Tickets for the Heather Land "I Ain't Doing it Show" are on sale now. The show will be held on Thursday, February 8th at 9pm at the Park Theater, located at 2312 Cedar Street in downtown McKenzie. The 7pm performance is currently sold out so tickets are only available for the 9pm performance. Tickets for the show cost $20 each and you can purchase tickets by going to the eventbrite website and following the link. You can also find more information on the Park Theatre's Facebook page. Heather Land's "I Ain't Doin It" has a knack for finding the funny out of the frustrating. Leaving no stone (or people) left unturned, she hilariously unravels everyday events that causes us to laugh not only at each other, but more often than not, ourselves. From ex-husbands to failed diets, her ability to deliver consistent comedy in a self-deprecating style has made her adored by millions of people of all ages. So get your tickets now before the show's sold out.

Miss Pearl's Country Cookin'

Apple Sauce

original recipe makes 1.5 -2 quarts

3 to 4 lbs of apples (about 7 to 10 apples)
peeled, cored, and quartered
4 strips of lemon peel (zest only)
3 to 4 Tbsp lemon juice
3 inches of cinnamon stick
1/4 cup of dark brown sugar
Up to 1/4 cup of white sugar
1 cup of water

1/2 teaspoon of salt
Place apples into a large pot. Add the strips of lemon peel, lemon juice, cinnamon stick, sugars, water and salt. Bring to a boil on high heat, then lower the temperature, cover the pot, and maintain a low simmer for 20-30 minutes, until the apples are completely tender and cooked through. Once the apples are cooked through, remove the pot from the heat. Remove the lemon peels and the cinnamon stick. Use a potato masher to mash the cooked apples in the pot to make a chunky applesauce. For a smoother applesauce you can either run the cooked apples through a food mill, or puree them in a blender. (If you use a blender, do small batches and do not fill the blender bowl more than halfway.) Add more sugar to taste. If too sweet, add more lemon juice.

Potato Skins

original recipe makes 4-6 servings

6 small to medium sized russet baking potatoes (total 3 lbs)
Olive oil
Canola oil or grapeseed oil
Kosher salt
Freshly ground pepper
6 strips of bacon
4 ounces grated cheddar cheese
1/2 cup sour cream
2 green onions, thinly sliced, including the greens of the onions

Scrub the potatoes clean then rub with olive oil and bake in a 400°F oven for about an hour until the potatoes are cooked through and give a little when pressed. While the potatoes are cooking, cook the bacon strips in a frying pan on medium low heat for 10 to 15 minutes, or until crisp. Drain on paper towels. Let cool. Crumble. Remove the potatoes from the oven and let cool enough to handle. Cut in half horizontally. Use a spoon to carefully scoop out the insides, reserving the scooped potatoes for another use, leaving about 1/4 of an inch of potato on the skin. Increase the heat of the oven to 450°F. Brush or rub grapeseed oil or canola oil all over the potato skins, outside and in. Sprinkle with salt. Place on a baking rack in a roasting pan (don't use a cookie sheet, it will warp, use a roasting pan or broiler pan that can take the heat). Cook for 10 minutes on one side, then flip the skins over and cook for another 10 minutes. Remove from oven and let cool enough to handle. Arrange the potato skins skin-side down on the roasting pan or rack. Sprinkle the insides with freshly ground black pepper, cheddar cheese, and crumbled bacon. Return to the oven. Broil for an additional 2 minutes, or until the cheese is bubbly. Remove from oven. Add a dollop of sour cream to each skin, sprinkle with green onions.

Apple & Sausage Pie

Original recipe makes 8 servings

1 basic pie dough recipe, chilled (or one frozen pie crust)
3/4 lb sweet Italian sausage
1 clove garlic, minced
2 cups shredded fontina, provolone, and or asiago cheese
2 large Granny Smith apples, peeled and thinly sliced
1 cup ricotta cheese
1/2 medium onion, chopped (about half a cup)
1/4 cup feta cheese
1 teaspoon sugar
2 eggs, slightly beaten
3 Tbsp butter

Preheat oven to 425°F. Line the inside of a pie shell with heavy aluminum foil, pressing the dough against the side. Bake for 8 minutes. Remove foil, poke the bottom of the pie crust with the tines of a fork to create air vents. Return crust to oven, bake for an additional 4 minutes, or until the crust just begins to brown. Remove from oven and let cool.

Reduce oven temperature to 350°F. Melt butter in a large skillet on medium heat. Add the apples, onions, and sugar, cook, stirring occasionally, until tender; about 5 minutes. In the last 30 seconds or so, add the garlic and cook until fragrant. Transfer mixture to a separate bowl. Increase the heat to medium high and in the same skillet add the Italian sausage. Cook, stirring only infrequently, until sausage is browned on all sides and is cooked through. Remove from heat. Remove the sausage with a slotted spoon to a dish lined with paper towels to absorb the excess fat. In medium sized bowl, mix together the cheeses and beaten eggs. Place sausage on bottom of pre-baked pie crust. Add the cooked apple onion mixture over the sausage. Pour the cheese egg mixture over the apple mixture and spread it so it evenly covers the pie. Bake at 350°F for 35 to 40 minutes, until a knife inserted in the center comes out clean. Let stand for 10 minutes before serving.

How Can You Improve Your Financial Fitness This Year?

If one of your New Year’s resolutions is to get healthier, you may already be taking the necessary steps, such as improving your diet and increasing your exercise. Of course, physical fitness is important to your well-being – but, at the same time, don’t forget about your financial fitness. Specifically, what can you do to ensure your investment situation is in good shape?

Here are a few “healthy living” suggestions that may also apply to your investment portfolio:

Build endurance – Just as exercise can help build your endurance for the demands of a long life, a vigorous investment strategy can help you work toward your long-term goals, such as a comfortable retirement. In practical terms, this means you will need to own some investments with the potential to provide long-term growth. These are the investments that, ideally, you can hold on to for decades and eventually reap the benefits of capital appreciation. Of course, growth-oriented investments, such as most types of stocks, will rise and fall in value over the short term, and there’s no guarantee of profits, or even preserving principal. But if you choose wisely, and you’ve got the patience and discipline to hold on to your investments through the market’s ups and downs, you may well be rewarded.

Maintain an ideal “weight” – You can help yourself stay healthy by maintaining your ideal weight. This can be challenging – as you know from the recently finished holiday season, it’s easy to put on a few extra pounds. And, just as inadvertently, your portfolio can tack on some unneeded weight, too, in the form of redundant investments. Over time, you may have picked up too many similar investment vehicles, resulting in an overconcentration, or “flabbiness,” that can work against you, especially when a market downturn affects the asset class in which you’re overloaded. So, you might be better off liquidating some of your duplicate, or near-duplicate, investments, and using the proceeds to help broaden your investment mix.

Get proper rest – Many studies have shown that we need adequate rest to stay alert and healthy. In your life, you’ve probably already found that if you over-tax your body, you pay a price in your overall well-being. If you look at your investment portfolio as a living entity – which, in a way, it is, as it certainly provides life to your goals and aspirations – then you can see that it, too, can be weakened by stress. And one of the main stress factors is excessive trading. If you’re constantly buying and selling investments in an attempt to boost your returns, you may rack up hefty fees, commissions and taxes – and still not really get the results you wanted. Plus, if you’re frequently moving in and out of different investments, you’ll find it hard to follow a unified, long-term strategy. So, confine your trading to those moves that are really essential – and give your portfolio a rest.

To enjoy your life fully, you’ll want to take care of your physical and financial health – and, as it turns out, you can make similar types of moves to help yourself in both areas.

Listen to Your Heart

Submitted by: Henry County Medical Center

Cardiovascular disease is the number one cause of death for both men and women in the United States, claiming approximately one million lives annually. More people die from heart disease than all forms of cancer combined. One out of four deaths in the United States is due to heart disease.

Many people who have heart disease, often don't realize it. It is important for everyone to learn the signs that indicate you could be suffering from some form of heart disease. This knowledge can help you avert a medical crisis and ensure you receive prompt medical attention in the event you have a heart health emergency.

There are three big signs of heart disease that you should never ignore. They are:

1. Chest Pain or Discomfort - This is the classic heart attack symptom, although men and women can experience chest pain differently. Men are more likely to feel crushing, squeezing, or burning pain, or a pressure or fullness in the center of the chest. This pain may radiate to the neck, arms, shoulders, or the jaw. Women tend to feel tightness or pressure in the center of their chest that lasts more than a few minutes. The pain or discomfort can even go away and then return.

2. Shortness of Breath - In women, shortness of breath can occur with or without chest discomfort. Men may experience flu-like symptoms, sweating, and a weak pulse.

3. Lightheadedness - Feeling lightheaded or dizzy often goes along with these other symptoms.

While these are the most typical symptoms of heart disease, there are other less obvious symptoms that can be experienced as well. Unexplained fatigue and exhaustion following routine activities can be an indicator of heart disease, especially in women. Other symptoms include fainting; unexplained pains- especially in the back, neck, jaw, teeth, or between the shoulder blades; swollen feet, ankles, or legs; and a persistent cough. While these symptoms can all be due to something other than heart disease, it is important to take them seriously and seek medical attention, especially if you have other risk factors for heart disease such as diabetes, high blood pressure, high cholesterol, or a family history of heart disease.

Simple lifestyle changes can help to lower your risk of heart disease, and improve your heart health if you have already been diagnosed. Keeping careful control of your cholesterol levels, blood pressure, and blood sugar levels are essential for heart health. Avoiding smoking and tobacco intake are also crucial. Eating a healthy and balanced low fat diet and engaging in physical activity are also vital to heart health.

Henry County Medical Center will be hosting it's annual Heart Health Fair on Tuesday, February 20 from 3-6 p.m. at the Bethel Atrium connected to the HCMC Diagnostic Center. There will be free screenings for cholesterol, blood sugar, body mass index, and blood pressure as well as stroke and sleep assessments. We will also be offering carotid artery ultrasounds and will have a pharmacist doing medication checks by appointment only. There will be a lot of valuable heart health information and education available as well. For more information about this event or to schedule an appointment for a carotid artery ultrasound or medication check call the HCMC FindLine at 731-644-3463.

Here's to Your Spiritual Health!

Submitted by Paris First Methodist Church & Pastor Joe Hansen

A timeless question came out of the Wesleyan movement in the 1700s. When small groups of Methodists met (John Wesley called them "bands") the members asked each other, "How is it with your soul?" Just like it is with physical and emotional/psychological health, our spiritual health can and should be monitored. Christians may slip into spiritual lethargy or take on a zealotry that makes the spirit rigid or self-righteous. And not only must we watch out for maladies, the simple truth is, all of us can grow healthier in spirit (unless you're already perfect!).

It's incredibly important to be in accountable relationships with other Christians who love you enough to ask about your spiritual health. But the road to improved spiritual health begins with honest reflection, and the Bible shows us what a healthy, growing spirit looks like. In Galatians 5 the Apostle Paul writes, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control."

By God's design these nine traits are to be present and growing in the lives of his children. All nine. You can't opt out on patience, for instance. Make an honest evaluation of your current state and even track your progress by rating yourself on a scale, where zero means you are in a world of hurt and nine means you are thriving ... no tens. There has to be room for growth!

Grace really is amazing! Even if you have to say, honestly, you're not well because several of these traits are lacking, God knows your condition, and with truthfulness and God's grace, you can start where you are and grow. Share your growth goals with one or more friends and ask them to hold you accountable. Wouldn't it be incredible to see these nine traits blossom and flourish in your life? With God's help this is exactly what you will see as you grow in spiritual health.

BE FINANCIALLY PREPARED FOR NATURAL DISASTERS

Just this past year, we’ve seen natural disasters in Texas, California, Florida and Puerto Rico – and looking back even further, it’s not hard to spot other traumas in virtually every part of the country. Whether it’s a tornado, hurricane, flood or wildfire, you may be at least potentially susceptible to a weather-related event that could threaten your physical – and financial – well-being. How can you protect yourself and your property?

As far as your physical safety is concerned, you’re probably already aware of the steps you need to take to shield yourself and your family. And now that many alerts can be sent directly to your smartphone, you’ve got an even better chance to prepare for an approaching threat. But when it comes to safeguarding your financial situation, you’ll need to be ready well in advance – and the following moves can help you be prepared:

STRENGTHEN YOUR HOME. Your home is probably your biggest asset, so you’ll want to do everything you can to keep it safe. In the face of a truly calamitous event, such as hundred-mile-per-hour winds there may not be much you can do, but in less dire circumstances, your actions can help. Your insurance professional can offer tips on protecting your residence.

MAINTAIN SUFFICIENT INSURANCE. It's a good idea to review your existing homeowners or renters insurance periodically to make sure you are sufficiently covered for all possible hazards. Keep in mind that homeowners insurance does not typically cover flooding, so you may need to purchase flood insurance from the National Flood Insurance Program. (Depending on where you live, this coverage may be required when you get your mortgage.) Also, in conjunction with maintaining your insurance, you should document your possessions, so you may want to make a video inventory as well as a written list containing descriptions and values.

CREATE AN EMERGENCY FUND. A natural disaster can lead to a wide array of unanticipated costs: appliance repair or replacement, hotel and restaurant bills, insurance deductibles – the list could go on and on. Consequently, you'll help protect yourself and your family by building an emergency fund. Some of this money should go into a liquid, low-risk account, but you may also want to keep a small amount of cash at home in a safe place, as ATMs and credit cards may not work during or following a disaster, when you must purchase needed supplies.

PROTECT YOUR DOCUMENTS. As you go through life, you'll accumulate a lot of documents – mortgage papers, insurance policies, financial accounts, tax statements and so on. If disaster strikes, you may need these documents. You'll want to store paper copies in a fireproof and waterproof box or safe at home, in a bank safety deposit box, or with a relative or close friend. Of course, we're now living in a digital age, so you can store electronic copies of important documents in a password-protected format on a removable flash or external hard drive. Better yet, you might want to use a secure cloud-based service.

With luck, you can avoid being victimized by a natural disaster. But, as the old saying goes: “Hope for the best and prepare for the worst.” From a financial perspective, that's good advice.
