Miss Pearl's Country Cookin'

Hazelnut & Chocolate Bread Pudding

1/4 cup unsalted butter
2 tablespoons semisweet chocolate chips
8 cups cubed challah or brioche
1/2 cup chopped hazelnuts
4 large eggs
1-1/2 cups fat-free milk
1/2 cup fat-free half-and-half
1/2 cup hazelnut spread
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/4 teaspoon salt
Heavy whipping cream, whipped

Microwave butter and chocolate chips until melted. 30-45 seconds; stir until smooth. Cool. In a 3- or 4-qt. slow cooker coated with cooking spray, combine bread cubes and hazelnuts. In a large bowl, combine next seven ingredients, mixing well. Add chocolate mixture to bowl; whisk until smooth. Pour egg mixture over bread and hazelnuts, gently pressing bread cubes to help them absorb liquid. Cook, covered, on low until a knife inserted in center comes out clean, 4-5 hours. Serve warm, dolloped with whipped cream. Yield: 12 servings.

Brisket & Bean Burritos

1 fresh beef brisket (2 pounds)
1 cup chopped onion
3 bacon strips, diced
1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
3/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 can (16 ounces) refried beans

1/2 cup salsa
1 can (4 ounces) chopped green chilies
1-1/2 cups shredded Monterey Jack cheese
10 flour tortillas (10 inches), warmed

Place brisket in a 5-qt. slow cooker; top with onion and bacon. Combine tomato sauce, pepper and salt; pour over meat. Cook, covered, on low for 4-1/2 to 5 hours or until meat is tender. In a microwave-safe bowl, combine refried beans, salsa and chilies. Microwave, covered, on high until heated through, 2-3 minutes. Remove meat from slow cooker; when cool enough to handle, shred with two forks. Layer bean mixture, meat and cheese off-center on each tortilla. Fold bottom and sides of tortilla over filling and roll up. Serve immediately. Freeze option: Individually wrap burritos in foil and freeze in a resealable plastic freezer bag. To use, partially thaw overnight in refrigerator. Preheat oven to 350°. Remove burritos from plastic bag. Bake foil-wrapped burritos on a baking sheet until heated through. To reheat one burrito, remove foil and rewrap in damp paper towel; microwave on high until heated through, turning once. Let stand 15 seconds. May be frozen up to 2 months. Yield: 10 servings.

Your Weekly Love Horoscope

Aries March 21-April 19
You surprise yourself at how easily you relinquish positions you once held dear. The truth is you simply have a change of priorities. The current situation calls for other ways of being, and you rise to the occasion. A part of you enjoys being on the cutting edge, even if it means reversing your identity and repackaging your image. Friction drives action. Status is the real enemy. Being an agent of destiny demands your kind of boldness.

Taurus April 20-May 20
You aim to please your friends. Therefore, it is extra difficult when one of them tells you something you do not want to hear. Before you let their message upset you, consider that if someone doesn't really care about you, it is much easier for them to stay silent than to say anything. Take the feedback as a sign of their investment in you. Discomfort can act as a catalyst for a growth spurt. If you grow with the flow, you can turn it to your ultimate advantage. Admitting your faults is the first step toward your transformation.

Gemini May 21-June 20
The status of your public role is unclear. You experience the attention as seen through a movie camera. The fame obscures some essential elements from your view, while showcasing others in extreme close-up. Although spontaneity and wit comes to you from left field today, the support you always counted on appears to vanish. In the commotion, you may be leaving a special friend or partner by the wayside. Employ your unique social gymnastics to keep everyone satisfied now. Your emotional flexibility saves the day.

Cancer June 21-July 21
Your ability to focus is hindered because you are lost in thought. Many forces compete for your attention now. Your mind remains firmly plugged into imagining your future, while your body must cope with the rhythm of your current daily routine. A close conviction with someone can help you to balance both worlds, but it cannot save you from any upheavals at work. Allow yourself some grace as you navigate the twists and turns of the day. Little by little the magical and mundane mix together, restoring harmony to your life.

Leo July 22-August 22
You ask yourself into improving your professional output. Although you wish the enjoyable aspects of your work, something gnaws at your heart today. A long-forgotten relationship issue crops up, requiring you to clear the air. The problem might be related to your lack of boundaries between business and pleasure. The ending of the time was abrupt, but the cosmos is offering you a second chance to rectify your side. Take this opportunity to clean the wound, even if it feels awkward or unpleasant. Your willingness to engage can help everyone heal. Doing the right thing enables you to forgive and move on.

Virgo August 23-September 22
Your family and personal life may not be one and the same now. Perhaps you are wavering between taking someone home to meet the parents and keeping your personal relationships to yourself. Or you could be struggling to figure out how much of your personal history to share with your kids. It might be time to be open with everyone about your business. On the office field, you enjoy having some things be yours, and yours work. Only you can decide how much to integrate various sides of your life. Transparency sounds awful on paper, but is a whole different ballgame in practice.

Libra September 23-October 22
Your mind is preoccupied with theoretical matters, yet practical concerns arise on receiving their fair share of your bandwidth. Although you make the mental leap to concentrate on the tasks in front of you, the second you try to focus the clarity turns muddy. Suddenly, the once-necessary action seems futile, and your thoughts begin to wander, followed by the pull to get back to work again. At some point the internal tug-of-war will resolve itself. Thankfully, you know how to be in two places at once.

Scorpio October 23-November 21
You might get so swept up in your undertakings that you forget to look at the clock. If time is money, you could quickly find yourself in a pickle today. Avoid letting a sharp exchange of words ruin your fun when there is no need to justify your behavior. You are not being lazy, you are exercising creative efficiency. A last-ditch effort may evoke a snow of luck, saving you from disaster. Your interpersonal relationship skills are your ticket to freedom. Your results speak for themselves.

Sagittarius November 22-December 21
You wrestle with the relationship between roots and wings today. Motivated by freedom, you yearn to sever anything that would tie you down. The reality is you come from somewhere - and this place still has a hold on a part of you, despite the strength of your wish to be free of it. Instead of outright rejection, attempt to find a silver lining in your past. In taking another look, you may be surprised at what you uncover and how your values transform. You might even discover hidden treasure if you're willing to persevere.

Capricorn December 22-January 19
You return to an introspective state. You may feel like comparing yourself in a pitiable way to many thoughts swirling in your mind today. You might realize that some ideas help sharpen your concept of self and others bring your flashes of insight about all your previous accomplishments. Performing this mental inventory helps to reveal your ambitions and recharge your batteries. However, you may experience push-back in your pursuit, if others are depending on you to solve their problems. This is a good sign. In Michel Foucault once said, Where there is power, there is resistance.

Aquarius January 20-February 18
You tend your social network like a garden now. Water every relationship and all every connection because each element of your scene requires separate aspects of you. While you put your attention grow, try to emphasize the strengths you wish to cultivate and leave the critique or complaint for another day. You can coax the most stubborn of volunteers with enough tender encouragement. Your voice travels like light across the fields of your future; let it shine wherever it can do the most good.

Pisces February 19-March 20
Your work involves some public exposure today. However, the amount of recognition is not the important issue; rather, it's about the sheer feeling of unknown eyes watching what you do. You may shepherd like a charlatan in a rare moment. Although trying to blend in and hide is the safest response, consider riding the wave of allure to see where it takes you. As your side mesh, keep your feet firmly planted on solid ground. Comedian Gilda Radner said, Fame changes a lot of things, but it can't change a tight butt.

Erin Feels the Luck of the Irish at Their St. Patrick's Day Celebration

The residents of Erin, Tennessee take wearing green on St. Patrick's Day pretty serious. So much so, that they have created an entire week long festival around their favorite Irish holiday. The Irish Day Celebration brings out the luck of the Irish along with some great food, live music and lots of fun!

The theme for this year's celebration is Roots Of The Irish Run Deep. Many have said that the beautiful rolling green hills of Erin reminded the early settlers of Ireland and that's why those with and Irish background were so attracted to the area. That is why this year's theme is so fitting to the tradition of the Irish Day Celebration.

The week long events include everything from a breakfast feast to a fancy banquet, fun carnival rides that make you feel alive to live music on various stages, events on land (a golf tournament) as well as by sea (fishing tournament) and a parade that features little leprechauns and a

The Friday before the big week gets underway the official host of the Irish Celebration, The Lord High Mayor is announced at a special Kick Off Breakfast. Other enough but before you know it Tuesday is here and the carnival opens on Front Street. Rides and games that are guaranteed to thrill the young and the young at heart will be open for business. Food vendors will be on hand too with the goodies you just can't get enough of, corn dogs, lemonade, candy apples and cotton candy! Keep watch out for special family night deals and discount bracelets.

Music is always a big part of the Irish Celebration. Past events have featured a traditional concert of authentic Irish hymns. A local radio station also sponsors an evening of gospel music. These events are open to the public and free of charge.

It is time to get all dressed up for the Irish Celebration Banquet on Friday evening. This semi-formal event is one of the highlights of the week long festivities. The delicious food, elegant decorations, beautiful music and the top notch prizes at the Silent Auction make it a grand evening. Tickets are available for this event at Erin City Hall.

Irish Day explodes with fun on Saturday, March 16th with not one, but two parades. Erin's little residents are the main attraction at the Leprechaun Parade. The sweet children look precious in their bow ties and top hats and proudly wear all of their green outfits. This parade starts at 10:45 at Starting at the Houston County Middle School makes it way to downtown Erin with high Irish fashion! The decorated floats and vehicles are the highlight of the day. It is probably safe to say that even though St. Patrick's Day is a day away you still may be pinched if you don't have your green on!

Also that day there will be reunions and visits to the archives, live music downtown, pancake breakfasts and a huge fish fry.

Everyone is welcome to be Irish for the day in Erin. Wearing green has never been more fun than when you attend the Irish Celebration. For more information visit the Houston County Chamber of Commerce page on Facebook. Come find out why the Irish Roots Run Deep in Erin, Tennessee.

Patsy Cline Forever Remembered at Memorial Site in Camden

Patsy Cline will always be remembered as one of traditional country music's all time great artists. She will also be remembered as being taken from the stage way before she was ever able to reach her prime. A tragic plane crash on the morning of March 5th, 1963 took the life of Patsy, along with country music stars Cowboy Copas, Hawkshaw Hawkins and their pilot, Randy Hughes. That plane crashed in the woods of Camden, Tennessee.

The Benton County Chamber of Commerce, along with the work of private citizens and area civic groups, have over the years, made a memorial out of the spot where that plane went down. Great strides have been made recently to make the spot more accessible to the public. It is a short walk to the memorial site and at this time is not completely handicap accessible. These are things to keep in mind if you are planning on visiting.

The Patsy Cline Memorial is located at 2904 Mt. Carmel Road, in Camden, Tennessee. A sign to the right side of the road indicates the pathway that leads down to the Memorial Boulder. Take a walk back in time to the boulder that marks the central spot as to where the plane wreckage was found. It has the names of the passengers of the plane and the date of the accident engraved upon it.

You will also find at the site other pieces of memorabilia and newspaper articles in remembrance of that fateful day in country music history. For more information about the Patsy Cline Memorial Site contact the Benton County Chamber of Commerce at 731-584-8395 or send an email to jcole@bentoncountychamber.com.

April in Paris

Spring Open Houses in Downtown Paris

The Downtown Paris Association (DPA) hosts April in Paris, Spring Open Houses in Historic Downtown

Paris Friday and Saturday April 5th and 6th. "This is the kickoff event of Downtown Paris – 2019 with Spring fashions, gifts for Easter, and Spring décor in downtown stores," said DPA Executive Director Kathy Ray.

The event will start at 4:00 pm with the ribbon cutting for the new mural for Back Alley Paris in the West Alley.

"Back Alley Paris has been a wonderful art project for our entire community. We are very proud of the artwork in the downtown alleys. Come to the West Alley and hear the stories of the new mural and talk with the artist, Dan Knowles. Take a walk through the alley and see where history and art meet," said Kathy Ray, Executive Director of DPA and project manager for Back Alley Paris.

"Stores will be open on Friday evening with extended hours from 5 pm to 8 pm and Saturday from 10 am to 5 pm," said Kathy Ray, who emphasized that there will be open house specials, drawings, and delicious refreshments in more than a dozen stores.

"A Spring Open House event is the perfect way to start the New Year! There's no better place for shopping than in downtown Paris. It's a lovely, leisurely place to browse with personal service and helpful perks, including gift-wrapping and delivery. Downtown offers everything from clothing to coffee, flowers to furniture, and home decor to delicious food," said Ray.

WORLD'S BIGGEST FISH FRY HAS SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

The statement that the World's Biggest Fish Fry, in Paris, Tennessee, has something for everyone is a true understatement! It just wouldn't be a fish fry without fried catfish but the entire week is chock full of music, fun, parades, arts and crafts, a demolition derby, rodeo and so much more!

That pile up you see at the Henry County Fairgrounds on April 20th is not an emergency situation – that's just the Demolition Derby! You don't have to rubber-neck at this crash site, it's there for everyone to see! Cars crash 'em and smash 'em til there's only one left running.

Entry fee for cars is $40. Admission at the gate is $10 for adults and $5 for children. The havoc begins at 7pm in the main arena.

Head on over to the Henry County Fairgrounds on Tuesday April 23rd for two big events! The Carnival opens at 5pm and the Country Dance begins at 6pm. The Carnival is one of best to come to Paris each year with rides for the big kids, the wild adults and the little guys. There are also lots of games and prizes and yummy food vendors. The Carnival hours are Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 23rd, 24th and 25th from 5 to 9pm, Friday and Saturday, April 26th and 27th, from 11am to 10pm, and Sunday, April 28th, from 1 to 5pm.

Look for special deals on tickets and bracelets during the week and for coupons sent home in the kid's backpacks from school. The Country Dance gets started at 6pm. It is held in the Enoch Building. Favorite local bands play traditional country music in the comfort of the air conditioned building. Seats and concessions are available. The admission cost is only $5.

After you have filled your belly at the Fish Tent it's time to go and fill your soul. There will be a Christian Concert under the outdoor pavilion. Live artists perform the latest in contemporary and traditional christian music. A perfect concert that can be enjoyed by everyone in your family.

Nothing shows off the creativity of the locals like the Arts and Crafts exhibits. Located in the Enoch Building at the Henry County Fairgrounds are some of the beautiful masterpieces of our local artists. They are not to be missed. Arts and Crafts Exhibit hours are Thursday, April 25th, 5pm to 9pm, and Friday and Saturday, April 26th and 27th, from 11am to 9pm.

It is said that the World's Biggest Fish Fry Grand Parade is one of the largest in West Tennessee. It can draw nearly 50,000 people to the area. It includes professionally and home-made decorated floats, marching bands, marching units, color guards, decorated cars, trucks and boats, beauty queens, local politicians, and more. It begins promptly at 10am, rain or shine. Be there early to get a good viewing spot, the crowd tends to get there quick. Streets are usually closed by 9am, so keep that in mind if you are traveling from out of town to attend. Other area festivals try to rival the Fish Fry parade but they simply do not compare. You must come see it for yourself!

So much work goes into the World's Biggest Fish Fry – it would be a shame to miss it. Mark off on your calendar the whole last week in April and head to Paris, Tennessee. You will not leave disappointed.

Tons of Catfish Served at The World's Biggest Fish Fry in Paris

It couldn't be called the World's Biggest Fish Fry without some delicious fried fish! That's exactly what the Jaycees serve up every year at the “Fish Tents” located at the Henry County Fairgrounds, in Paris Tennessee. They have been known to cook more than 6 tons of catfish during a 4 day frying fest. That is a lot of food! And that doesn't even count all of the fixin's that are prepared either. What the Jaycees want you to know is when you come to the Fish Fry, you need to come hungry!

The “Fish Tent” is a term used for the new commercial building at the Henry County Fairgrounds. It is a friendly reminder of how far the World's Fish Fry has come over the years. Once upon a time the fish was served under tents in the early days.

Now it has grown so that the commercial building sometimes fills up to capacity.

Carry out plates are available, but to get the full advantage of all-you-can-eat you should “dine in.” $12 will get you unlimited delicious fried catfish, golden fried hush puppies and French fries, creamy mayo and tangy vinegar slaw and home-made white beans. Professional fish fryers are brought in for this special occasion and cooks from local churches provide the white beans. Your meal also includes, soda, water and iced tea. To keep from waiting too long in line, the Jaycees provide a special line just for those wanting to go back for seconds, or thirds. Or fourths? You've been told – come hungry!

The World's Biggest Fish Fry may be a week long event but the Fish Tent isn't open until Wednesday, April 24th. At that time there is a special opening ceremony lead by the General Manager of the Fish Fry. A prayer is said and then traditionally the serving begins when the Hostess Princess tosses out the first hush puppy. It takes a huge number of volunteers to serve all the food. Members of local civic groups, churches, businesses and city and county politicians gladly take on the job. Serving hours are Wednesday and Thursday, April 24th and 25th, 5pm to 9pm, and Friday and Saturday, April 26th and 27th, 11am to 9pm. Generally service ends when either the guests stop coming or they run out of catfish.

The fish is always hot and fresh. It makes no difference if you want to dine in early or come by late, the Jaycees will have supper ready for ya! You don't want to be left out of the World's Biggest Fish Fry!

Downtown Paris Hosts Several Fish Fry Events

Downtown Paris serves as host for some of the World's Biggest Fish Fry's most popular and unique events! Not only are they some of the most entertaining events of the week they are also all free and open to the public!

Before Fish Fry Week even gets started you are invited to the Bed Races on Saturday, April 20th. Teams made up of four people will decorate and race a bed on wheels around the designated downtown streets. Runners win heats and move on until there is only one bed left standing, even if the runners are ready to fall into it! This new tradition was a huge hit last year.

Fish Fry Week officially kicks off with a Street Dance on Monday, April 22nd, starting at 7pm. Local bands set up on the courthouse lawn and play music late into the night. Everyone is welcome to either dance their socks off in the street or to bring a lawn chair and relax. It is also a great opportunity to do a little window shopping around the court square at all the great shops and boutiques.

Saturday, April 27th is a big day for Fish Fry and downtown Paris. It gets started with the Small Fry Parade. It may be a mini-version of the big parade but no less grand. Children are dressed in homemade costumes and march while singing and playing music. Only hand pulled "floats" are allowed or pedal driven vehicles. Everyone meets and lines up at the First United Methodist Church in downtown Paris. The Small Fry Parade circles the Court Square beginning around

10am

Immediately following the Small Fry Parade is the Story Telling sponsored by the Paris Post Intelligencer. Elementary school children write stories about the catfish that are participating in the Catfish Races. The stories are always creative and inventive and remind us how imaginative the minds of our youth really are.

After the tall tales have been told it is time for the most unique event at the World's Biggest Fish Fry – the Catfish Races.

Specially designed waterways were built just for our swimming champs. Various members of the community volunteer to pick a catfish and hold them at the starting line of their waterway until their heat begins. The catfish that gets to the end first moves on to the next heat. The catfish race until there is only one winner. Every precaution is taken to make sure the catfish are not harmed during this event. The winner takes home not only a the title of champion but a beautiful prize trophy!

The budding artists in our area may want to take a break from the races and come draw on the sidewalk with colored chalk. The Chalk Crawl for Kids, sponsored by the Downtown Paris Association and K and B Supplies for Success, provides free colored chalk and artistic assistance during this event which takes place on the sidewalks around the courthouse. The children are invited to draw and color a beautiful fish or anything they want. Each child also gets a strand of fish beads and a snack for participating. Bring your camera and take pics and post them of your child's fabulous art work. It only lasts til the next big rain – and it is April so that may not be long.

Check out all of the World's Biggest Fish Fry events happening the last full week in the month of April. Please visit downtown Paris, they are ready to serve you!

Classic Automobiles Are the Star of the Show at the Local Downtown Cruise-ins

Just as soon as the weather starts getting pretty again the classic cars and trucks come out of hibernation! Northwest Tennessee holds two of the most popular Car Shows around. The Downtown Cruise-In in Paris and the Legend's Cruise-In in Camden. Both events are held downtown around their courthouses and feature music, food, give-aways and lots of metal and chrome.

Here is a rundown of scheduled dates and entertainment that is available at this time. Downtown Paris Cruise In, 5:30-7:30pm, Tuesday, April 23rd, featuring music by Scott Myatt and Steve Short. Legends Cruise-In the following weekend, 1-4pm, Saturday, April 27th.

Legends Cruise-In, Saturday, May 25th, 1-4pm. Downtown Paris Cruise In, 5:30-7:30pm, Tuesday,

May 28th, featuring music by Rockin' Randall French.

Legend's Cruise-In, 1-4pm, Saturday, June 22nd. Downtown Paris Cruise In, 5:30-7:30pm, Tuesday, June 25th, featuring music by Olivia Faye and Don Rachford.

Saturday, July 27th Downtown Paris will hold their Ice Cream Social along with the Cruise In and will be joined by Antique Tractors, 4-6:30pm. Legends Cruise-In, 1-4pm, Saturday, July 27th.

Legend Cruise-In, 1-4pm, Saturday, August 24th.

Downtown Paris Cruise In, 5:30-7:30pm, Tuesday, August 27th, featuring music by the Old Spirits.

The last Downtown Paris Cruise In will be held from 5:30-7:30, Tuesday, September 24th, featuring music by the Chill Tonics. Legends Cruise-In, 1-4pm, Saturday September 28th.

The last Legends Cruise-In will be held from 1-4pm, Saturday, October 26th. Their grand prize will be given away at the last meet!

If you are into the classic cars, either showing them or seeing them, if you like good southern food, and if you like live music from the area's best musicians then you want to visit one or all of these cruise-ins. They are open to the public and there is no charge for viewing the classic autos or to listen to the music. Who knows, you might even win a prize or two!

The City of Dresden Appreciates a Pretty Flower at the Iris Festival

The residents of Dresden Tennessee appreciate the beautiful Iris so much they have created a week long event around the beautiful flower. The 40th Annual Iris Festival will begin April 27th and run thru May 4th. Besides admiring the horticulture there are a lot of fun things happening around town, too!

Everything begins to bloom on Saturday, April 27th, 6pm at Wilson Park with the Opening Ceremonies. After the introductions and announcements there is plenty of free food, live music and a fireworks extravaganza! That is the official opening to the festival. Everyone knows the city-wide yard sale that day is where the fun really begins!

The week of the Iris Festival has so many things going on it is hard to keep up with it all. Everything is also still in the planning stages so dates, times and activities are subject to change. Monday, April 29th there is a Prayer Breakfast and a Tasting Party, along with the Iris Festival Art Show, beginning at 6pm at the Dresden City Hall.

Bingo Night is Tuesday with a children's round beginning at 6pm at the Elementary School and a game for the adults at the Middle School. Besides cash and prizes there will also be free pizza! Senior Citizens are invited to a pot-luck luncheon on Wednesday, at the McWherter Civic Center. Everyone is welcome to compete in the Baking Contest. That evening head over to the Dresden First Baptist Church for a Pancake Supper and a Community-Wide Gospel Singing. The cost for supper is only $5.

The Health Fair will be held from 9am to noon, on the Court House Lawn, in Downtown Dresden, on Thursday, May 2nd. You can spend the rest of the day either playing a round of golf in the Golf Tournament, or getting artistic at the Rock Painting, envying high fashion at the Fashion Show or enjoying some delicious food at the Fairy Tale Feast at the Elementary School Cafeteria.

It's all about the Irises and they will be on full display along with other horticultural wonders at the Horticulture Show, Friday, 1pm, at the First Methodist Church. You can also enjoy more food and music all throughout the day as well. The Corner Cafe will be open from 11am to 1pm and later that day there is a BBQ Cookoff. In the evening there will be a Music Fest on the Court Square and a Teen Street Dance.

The week long celebration concludes on Saturday with a ton of activities. The day starts with a 5K, 2 Mile Walk, 1 Mile Kid's Run, beginning at 8am at Main Street and Poplar St. Following that is the Iris Festival Parade at 10am. The parade starts at the Dresden 1st Baptist Church. Throughout the day there will be a petting zoo and pony rides for the kids. The Governor's Luncheon and Farmer's Market will be held at the Terry Oliver Plaza and there will also be a fun Pet Show!

Lots of work goes into an event like this and it would be a shame to miss it. For more information visit the Iris Festival's Facebook Page or contact the City of Dresden. You will find that the Iris is just one small part of the beauty found in Dresden, Tennessee.

The Benton County/Camden Chamber of Commerce is proud to announce Benton County's newest event, the JumpFish Jamboree. The JumpFish Jamboree has been a collaborative effort after realizing the threat to the local tourism economy from the Asian Carp crisis.

Asian Carp are an invasive species that threaten to severely damage the natural habitat of the native fish in our Kentucky Lake resource. With tourism being a large economic driver and a large portion of the tourism dollars being related to the sport-fishing industry, the JumpFish Jamboree will provide an outlet to raise awareness of this invasive species.

JumpFish Jamboree will take place on May 3-4, 2019

at the Eva Beach Day Use Area within the Nathan Bedford Forrest State Park in Eva, Tennessee. This event will be the first of its kind in the State of Tennessee. We are proud to announce that the Tennessee Wildlife Resource Agency has proudly stepped up to sponsor this event.

At 7 pm on May 3rd, the bow fishing tournament will begin. Although we do not have exact prize amounts at this time, we expect it to be highly lucrative for any bow fishing sportsman. On May 4th at 6 am, the bow fishing tournament will end. The tournament winners will be determined by total weight.

May 4th at 10:00 am, the Carp Catchin' tournament will begin. This tournament is

Downtown Paris Week Celebrates 196 Years

How do you celebrate a downtown that is alive and thriving after 196 years? The Downtown Paris Association is throwing a weeklong party that includes delicious food, historic tours, exhibits, live music, great sales, giveaways and more. Downtown Paris Week 2019, is Sunday through Saturday, June 2-8 in Downtown Paris - the “Crown Jewel of West Tennessee.” Downtown Paris Week continues to grow with seven exciting days of fun, food, music, history and of course, shopping. The festivities are sponsored by the Downtown Paris Association (DPA).

Sunday, June 2 – Worship Downtown Day is an opportunity for our community to visit one of six, historic downtown churches for Sunday services. Whether it’s First Baptist, First Christian, First Methodist, First Presbyterian, Grace Episcopal or Quinn Chapel AME, the churches of downtown are welcoming and inspiring. “Many of these historic churches have been in the downtown area since the mid-eighteen hundreds,” said Kathy Ray, Executive Director of the DPA. “They are the cornerstones of downtown and are the perfect place to begin Downtown Paris Week.”

Monday, June 3 – Dine Downtown Day celebrates the eateries of downtown Paris. On a day when many local restaurants are closed, the downtown kitchens are hopping places. Enjoy a delicious meal at Stella Nera, Take Me Back Café, Perry’s BBQ, El Antojo Mexican Grill, Uncle Billy’s Downtown Eatery, LL’s Bar & Grill, and coffee and snacks at Jack’s Java, then register to win a prize from the Downtown Paris Association. Top off that meal with a little exercise and culture with the Downtown Art Walk. Throughout the week, a number of local artists will display their work in various downtown shops.

Tuesday, June 4 – Music on the Square brings southern rock to the east side of the court house lawn with The Old Spirits. The music flows from 5:30 – 7:00 pm. And because great music calls for great food, Perry’s BBQ will serve BBQ on site. Just bring a chair and enjoy a fun time with an exciting local musical group and delicious food.

Wednesday, June 5 – Heritage Day offers the answers to those burning Downtown questions, like “how many times did the court square really catch on fire?” Ray Harding invites locals and visitors alike to find out what’s so cool about downtown during his free, 45-minute walking tour. Participants should meet on the corner in front of Jack Jones Flowers. The FREE tour departs at 11:00 am. Wear comfortable walking shoes.

Thursday, June 6 – Songwriters on the Square is sponsored by Paris Fire & Industrial Safety and showcases musicians going “round robin” with favorite tunes that they’ve penned themselves. “We have so much talent in our area,” said Kathy Ray. “This is a great way to spotlight it. Our very own local songwriter, Vince Dodd of Wooden Roses, will lead the group along with several local musician songwriters.” Music lovers can enjoy a variety of talented songsmiths from 5:30 to 7:00 pm on the Downtown Court Square. Come hungry. Perry’s BBQ will be selling BBQ, sides and drinks. Don’t forget to bring your chair.

Friday, June 7 – Government Day is a “tip of the hat” to the government workers who serve our community. Please take a minute to thank a City or County employee for their service to our Community.

Saturday, June 8 – Tales from the Crypt Tour is from 1 to 3 pm in the City Cemetery. For a $5 donation to the City Cemetery preservation fund, come listen to the stories as told by local historians. Downtown Extra Value Days will feature special value sales all day in stores downtown.

“This is our Seventh Annual Downtown Paris Week and we feel it encompasses everything that is wonderful about our downtown,” said DPA Executive Director Kathy Ray. “We invite everyone to enjoy the fun of our historical downtown and to become a member of the Downtown Paris Association, where we champion Downtown Paris and our community.” For more information, LIKE the Downtown Paris Association Facebook page, visit www.VisitDowntownParis.com, download the FREE Downtown Paris App, or call the DPA at (731) 653-7274.

Tennessee River Jam & Froggy-Fest Coming to Kentucky Lake

The Paris-Henry County Chamber of Commerce has announced that Froggyfest 2019 will be held at Paris Landing State Park during the three-day music festival, The Tennessee River Jam. In a collaborative effort from Forever Communication, The Paris-Henry County Chamber of Commerce, The Henry County Tourism Authority and the Paris Landing State Park, the event will rock the shores of Kentucky Lake on Saturday, June 29th.

Headlining the concert will be Grammy Award Winner Joe Diffie, Country Rock Group-The Kentucky Headhunters, and Confederate Railroad. Also performing during Froggyfest, 6th Place Winner of Season 15 of American Idol-Tristan McIntosh and our local favorites Johnny Mac and the Heart Attacks.

“For years our community has had discussion surrounding producing some type of music event. A concert, a festival, really anything that could bring entertainment and tourist to our area,” commented Travis McLeese, Executive Director of the Paris Henry County Chamber of Commerce. “We have been fortunate to have countless creative people around the table to develop meaningful relationships, that turned into partnerships, to produce an event of this magnitude.”

Tickets for Froggyfest will be available on March 1st. Vendor applications will be available by contacting Debbie Howard, Vice President and General Manager.

“We cannot not thank the Paris Chamber of Commerce enough for inviting us to hold our annual Froggyfest here in Paris,” added Christine Hillard, President and COO of Forever Communications. “Paris Landing is a beautiful location and we are thrilled to be a part of the new Tennessee River Jam. Over the past six months we have formed a valuable partnership with the Paris Chamber and its members and look forward to continuing this relationship for many years to come.”

In addition to Froggyfest at Paris Landing State Park, The Breakers, Blue’s Landing, The Lee School Academy will produce a concert at The Krider Performing Arts Center, The Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge Visitors Center, Sweet Jordan’s and Ace’s Restaurant will all host concerts during the three-day period, June 28th-30th.

“We are thrilled to host Froggyfest 2019 at Paris Landing State Park,” said Zach Tinkle, park manager. “We are glad our park can play a role in the three-day Tennessee River Jam. This is one of the many ways Tennessee State Parks can serve the people in this region, combining a beautiful outdoor setting with a boost for rural economic development. It’s a terrific music lineup, and we’re grateful for the opportunity to partner with Forever Communication, the Paris-Henry County Chamber of Commerce and the Henry County Tourism Authority. Everyone should come and join the fun.”

The Chamber of Commerce Tourism Committee is chaired by Vice President Tory Daugherty, and includes members; Kathy Ray, Donna Craig, Kasey Muench, Michael Trolinger, Jennifer Morris, Kenitha Ferguson, Michele Atkins, Tony Lawrence, John Etheridge, Randi French, Laura Dougherty, Emily Giddens, Jeff Seaton, and Monte Starks. The President of the Chamber of Commerce is Scott Morrison.

A full list of artists and details on each concert for the Tennessee River Jam will be released in early March.

Fireworks Are the Highlights of Fourth of July Events

Independence Day is one of the most exciting holidays of the year! The weather is usually sunny and warm, the food is sizzling on the grill, the drinks are all chilled in the cooler and there's fireworks! Everyone loves fireworks!

Because of the dry summer days and so many cities with ordinances preventing fireworks, it is a good thing that so many different events exist nearby with a fabulous display of light and color. Best of all, all of these Fireworks Extravanzas are open to the public and free of charge!

Several cities around our area have way more than just firework shows on the Fourth of July. Murray, Kentucky hosts Freedom Fest, an event that includes something for both the young and not so young. Murray holds a huge Grand Parade down their Main Street and a Street Fair and an Open Market around their Court Square. The city park has live music in their amphitheater, a petting zoo, inflatables, face painting, tons of games and prizes, and arts and crafts. Family Day even has activities that include your pets. The park also has various food and soft drink vendors serving it up fresh all day! Bring a chair or blanket and when night falls enjoy the huge extravaganza of color and light over the city of Murray. For more info contact the Murray Tourism Commission.

Cottage Grove, Tennessee may be one of the smallest towns in Henry County but they put on one of the biggest events on America's birthday. The Cottage Grove Freedom Fest, sponsored by the Volunteer Fire Department, starts their day with a parade and bike ride down Main Street. Then everyone heads over to the old school building for the rest of the day. A DJ is set up and plays music all throughout the day and there is dancing under the tent. There are arts and crafts tables and food booths set up all over the lawn. You will find face painting and games, too. Usually there are special activities like a Cake Walk and a Dunking Booth. Live music and one of the biggest fireworks shows in our area cap off the evening.

Another Fourth of July Festival in our area is in McKenzie, Tennessee. Their Court Square and Downtown location are the site for music, food and fun. The red, white and blue are abundant at their Independence Day Parade. Food and live music are also plentiful. They have a surplus of activities for the children, too. Their fireworks display can be seen for miles around. McKenzie celebrates big time at their Freedom Festival.

Maybe you are wanting a more relaxed Fourth of July. That's not a problem either. Just head down to Paris Landing State Park. Find you a good spot, take a blanket and a picnic lunch and camp out for the day. Go swimming at the pool or down on the sandy beach or take a stroll around the park under the shade trees. When night falls, The Henry County Jaycees put on a fireworks show over the reflective waters of Kentucky Lake. Visually it's like getting two fireworks shows at the same time!

Sometimes the best holidays are spent in your own backyard. But if time or funds don't allow for putting a party together yourself then take advantage of these community events. Give one of them a try this year and find out how fun the area festivals really are!

Make sure you are there to find out more info about those! More winners means more happy people.

The past few years some of the featured resorts included, Buchanan Resort, Cypress Bay, Fat Daddy's, Leatherwood and Paris Landing State Park. The Fun Run begins promptly at 9am and the last boat in should be no later than 4pm. Disqualifications will apply to boats not attempting to dock by the designated time. Also, every Fun Run has an imaginative theme. Some of the most popular themes in the last few years have been the Gilligan's Island theme, Cheeseburger in Paris-Dise, Red Neck Yacht Club and River Rats. Decorations, costumes and accessories are definitely encouraged! A collector's tee shirt has become one of the prized possessions from each Fun Run. Make sure and get yours early. The last few years they have been sold out.

Registration packs are usually available at the Henry County Chamber of Commerce beginning at the first week of June. Preregistration is $20, registration on the day of the Water Fun Run is $25. The packets are available at the Chamber office and the various resorts participating in the Fun Run. You may register up to the beginning time of the Fun Run on July 20th.

The Water Fun Run is always an awesome way to conclude your summer on the lake. Even if you don't end up with the best hand of the day, just cruising the lake was worth the time and effort. Get some sun, enjoy some cold beverages and have some quality time with your friends and family. That is what the Water Fun Run is really about. And, some lady luck and cold hard cash doesn't hurt either. For more info contact the Henry County Chamber of Commerce at paristn-chamber.com.

Antique Cars, Tractors and Ice Cream Booths Fill Downtown Paris

The 10th Annual Ice Cream Social & Antique Car & Tractor Show will fill historic downtown Paris on the last Saturday in July, July 27th, from 4:00 – 6:30 pm. Sponsored by the Downtown Paris Association (DPA), the event benefits the Downtown Paris Association and Plus Endowment.

“This has become an end-of-summer tradition that folks of all ages look forward to,” said DPA Executive Director Kathy Ray. “Everyone with an event wristband can enjoy free ice cream from each booth, a “KidsZone” area with fun activities with face painting, and crazy contests; it’s definitely the coolest fundraiser around, no pun intended.” Wristbands are available for a minimum donation of $10 for adults or $5 for children 12 and the car and tractor with the most votes will each win a Peoples’ Choice Award Trophy. The Antique Tractor Show is relatively new to the event. Last year brought out several tractors and we hope to showcase more this year. Registration process is the same as the Car Show.

Also, for a donation of $5, you can get in some fun contests!

- 4:30 PM Kids Ice Cream Eating Contest sponsored by Comer Farms
- 5:00 PM Adults Ice Cream Eating Contest
- 5:30 PM Kids Frozen T-Shirt Contest sponsored by WMUF/WLZK/WRQR
- 6:00 PM Adults Frozen T-Shirt Contest

The DPA is always looking for sponsors to be a part of this great fund raising event. If you are interested in being a sponsor of this fun event, contact the Downtown Paris Association at 653-PARIS (7274), email Kathy Ray at downtownparis@outlook.com or go online at www.VisitDowntownParis.com.

under. They can be purchased from the DPA, members of Plus Endowment, ice cream booth partners, and at the event.

The Antique Car Show brings vehicles in from four states and there will be 80 to 90 classic cars, according to Chairperson Vicky Muzzall. Registration is a minimum donation of $10 which includes an event wristband. “Votes (25 cent donations) are tallied throughout the event,” said Muzzall. “At 6:30 pm

Small Town of Big Sandy Holds the State's Largest Duck Blind Drawing

Big Sandy, Tennessee is typically not known for being the largest of anything. It is a very small town with a small population and just a handful of businesses and restaurants. But for the fans of waterfowl and duck hunting, Big Sandy is the most popular spot in the entire state to register for the TWRA duck blind drawing.

Hundreds of hunters gather at the Big Sandy City Park on the first Saturday in August to attend the Waterfowl Festival and register for the duck blind drawing. Tennessee holds several drawings throughout the state on this day. The Big Sandy drawing covers more than 80 duck blinds, not only in Big Sandy, but also in Camden, Harmon's Creek and Gin Creek areas.

Registration begins promptly at 7am. The duck blinds are drawn by hand and begin at 10am. Map locations and GPS coordinates can be found at tnwildlife.org.

The Waterfowl Festival has a whole lot more going on besides just the duck blind drawing. There are vendors set up with the latest in waterfowl hunting equipment and accessories like weapons, ammo and hunting safety clothing. You will also find a wide variety of duck calls and decoys. The demonstrations are always popular with the crowd, too. There are duck call contests and dog retrieval showcases. As with any festival there is always good food on hand, too. The events are open to the public and free of charge.

Remember to be in Big Sandy for the largest Duck Blind Drawing and Waterfowl Festival in Tennessee on Saturday, August 3rd. If you duck hunt you will not want to miss it.

MCKENZIE KEEPS ALIVE OUR FAVORITE SOUTHERN TRADITIONS - SWEET TEA & FRIED FOODS

Legend has it that the sweetest place in Tennessee is McKenzie during the Southern Fried and Sweet Tea Festival. It will be really hard to find a better way to end the perfect summer than with some deep fried goodies and a big ole Mason jar filled with sweet iced tea. Well, you might want to add some lemons!

Downtown McKenzie is the place to be on the evening
of Friday, August
23rd and all day on Saturday, August

24th. The Southern
Fried and Sweet
Tea Festival may be a new event to our area but it has grown tremendously
in popularity
from year to year.

The best way to spend a warm
summer evening is
with a cold glass
of sweet tea while
you listen to some live music. You can find all of that
and more in Downtown McKenzie on Friday night. The stage will be set up and ready for a great show. All you have to do is show

up and bring your
own lawn chair.
The Kid's Zone
will be set up for the little guys, with all sorts of jumpers
and inflatables to play on. You will also find carnival
rides more suited
for the younger
children, as well
as, a petting zoo.
There will also be
games and prizes
appropriate for kids
of all ages.

Friday night is just the appetizer for
the Main Event on Saturday. Jam-
packed is one way

to describe all the happenings at the Southern Fried and Sweet Tea Festival.
You need to make plans to spend the entire day in downtown McKenzie
or you will surely miss something
that everyone else
will be talking about. Every where you turn there will be food vendors
with mouth-watering deep fried treats. Corn dogs,
french fries, hush
puppies, Twinkies,
Oreos, you name
it, they will fry it!
All of this can only
be washed down

with a big glass of sweet tea.

Once you have tried out all of the treats it will be a great time to check out the Arts and Crafts Booths and
the various local vendors selling everything under the
sun. The carnival
rides and the Kid's Zone will still be set up for kids to enjoy, too.

Live music can make or break any event. The Sweet Tea Festival is known for their excellent line-ups.

Past performers have included
No Time Flatt,
Mike Hightower
& Friends, Tera
Townsend, The Longshot Band and everyone's favorite performer, Paula Bridges. The music
is open to the public and there is no charge. Feel free to bring a chair and stay awhile. The kids can play, there will be plenty to eat and drink and
the music will be awesome. Sounds like plans for the perfect Saturday
night in McKenzie,
Tennessee!

If you haven't visited this event yet,
now is the time to
make plans to go.
Set aside Friday
and Saturday, August 23rd and 24th
for a road trip to McKenzie, Tennessee. The Southern
Fried and Sweet
Tea Festival is sure
to have something
to hit your spot!
Visit their Facebook page. More information will be available as time
draws closer to the event.
