2 cups coffee ice cream
Whipped cream and chocolate syrup
1/3 cup English toffee bits or almond brickle chips
Preheat oven to 350°. Let dough stand at room temperature 5-10 minutes to soften. Cut into 12 slices; press onto bottoms and up the sides of greased muffin cups. Bake 12-14 minutes or until golden brown. Cool slightly on a wire rack. Spoon ice cream into each cup. Cover and freeze 1-2 hours or until firm. Remove cups from pan. Garnish with whipped cream and chocolate syrup. Sprinkle with toffee bits.

Pour over rolls; sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Bake, uncovered, until golden brown and heated through, 20-25 minutes. Sprinkle with basil before serving.

Finding the Truth

Is It Taught in the Bible?

The sinner's prayer is not found in scripture, it is a concoction of denominational preachers, trying to change the Bible's way of salvation, so they can attract more people.

This is the sinner's prayer, and though it may vary somewhat, this is the prayer in the main. "I know I am a sinner, I hereby repent of my sins, and right now by faith receive Jesus Christ into my heart, thank you for saving me." It is not in the Bible. There is not any place in the Bible where an alien sinner who was seeking salvation was told to say the sinner's prayer.

The Bible teaches one must hear the Gospel, believe and be baptized for salvation. Jesus said, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." (Mark 16:15,16) "But he that believeth not is condemned already." (John 3:18)

"Then Peter said unto them, repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins." (Acts 2:38)

The sinner's prayer only gives one a false hope of salvation. No one can be saved by the sinner's prayer. Please do not be misled by denominational preachers. Salvation can be had only by obedience to the Gospel. (II Thessalonians 1:7-9)

There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." (Proverbs 14:12)
