ACT Prep Course UT Martin will hold an ACT Test Taking Strategies Class at Henry County High School this Saturday March 10th from 8am to Noon. Registration is $45 per student and the one-session course will cover quick tips on all four tests to boost your score, learn time-saving strategies on sections that drag students down, get an overview of the do's and don'ts in studying habits, and understand how to focus your abilities to answer questions more efficiently. You can register and pay for the course online at www.utm.edu/departments/non-degree/other_locations.php

Murray State Seminar of

Sunshine Laws In observation of Sunshine Week, a national celebration of public access to information, Dr. Melony Shemberger, assistant professor of journalism and mass communications at Murray State University, will present a free session about sunshine laws Monday, March 12, at 6 p.m. in room 107 of Wilson Hall. Sunshine Week is recognized March 11-17 and is organized by the American Society of News Editors and the Reporters Committee for Freedom of the Press. Sunshine laws are a vital component of the free press and pertain to public information, open meetings and open records. "Sunshine laws are news-gathering and reporting tools for journalists," Shemberger said. "Unfortunately, journalists do not use these laws as much as they should. Citizens, too, are impacted greatly by these laws or a lack of them." During the presentation, Shemberger will discuss her experience working with open records and public information throughout the course of her career. For years as a journalist and a scholar, Shemberger has advocated and studied the need for improved literacy on sunshine laws. In 2004, when she was a master's degree candidate in Murray State's journalism and mass communication department, Shemberger used her comprehensive project to examine the lack of education that public officials receive on sunshine laws — an investigation that led to a series of award-winning newspaper stories. In 2011, during her dissertation in Tennessee State University's Doctor of Education program and in subsequent journal articles, Shemberger studied the journalism curriculum in Tennessee's colleges and universities in comparison to the state's rapidly evolving changes in sunshine laws. She plans to do a similar examination of the journalism programs at Kentucky's four-year postsecondary schools. In one of her journalism courses, In-depth Reporting, Shemberger incorporates an intense unit on sunshine laws in advance of the local meeting coverage that students have to complete. For more information about the upcoming presentation or sunshine laws, please contact Shemberger at 270-809-6874 or mshemberger@murraystate.edu.

Miss Pearl's Country Cookin'

Baked Chimichangas

1-1/2 cups cubed cooked chicken breast
1-1/2 cups picante sauce, divided
1/2 cup shredded reduced-fat cheddar cheese
2/3 cup chopped green onions, divided
1 teaspoon ground cumin
1 teaspoon dried oregano
6 flour tortillas (8 inches)
1 tablespoon butter, melted

In a small bowl, combine the chicken, 3/4 cup picante sauce, cheese, 1/4 cup onions, cumin and oregano. Spoon 1/2 cup mixture down the center of each tortilla. Fold sides and ends over filling and roll up. Place seam side down in a 15-in. x 10-in. x 1-in. baking pan coated with cooking spray. Brush with butter. Bake, uncovered, at 375° for 20-25 minutes or until heated through. Top with remaining picante sauce and onions.

Rainbow Jello Squares

4 packages (3 oz each) assorted flavored gelatin
6 envelopes unflavored gelatin, divided
5-3/4 cups boiling water, divided
1 can (14 oz) sweetened condensed milk
1/4 cup cold water

In a bowl, combine one package flavored gelatin and one envelope unflavored gelatin. Stir in 1 cup boiling water until dissolved. Pour into a 13-in. x 9-in. dish coated with cooking spray; refrigerate until set but not firm, about 20 minutes. In a bowl, combine the condensed milk and 1 cup boiling water. In another bowl, sprinkle two envelopes unflavored gelatin over cold water; let stand for 1 minute. Stir in 3/4 cup boiling water. Add to the milk mixture. Spoon 1 cup of the creamy gelatin mixture over the first flavored gelatin layer. Refrigerate until set but not firm, about 25 minutes. Repeat from beginning of recipe twice alternating flavored gelatin with creamy gelatin layers. Chill each layer until set but not firm before spooning next layer on top. Make final flavored gelatin; spoon over top. Refrigerate for at least 1 hour after completing last layer before cutting into 1-in. squares.

Your Weekly Love Horoscope

Aries
March 21-April 19

Life becomes complicated today because it appears you're expected to deepen your involvement in a cause, project or relationship, which you are secretly hoping to de-emphasize. But rather than turning this difference of perspective into an outright conflict, a smarter strategy is to stick to your position and wait until tomorrow for the dynamics to begin to change. Your powerful sense of urgency can be your superpower at times, but now it's your Kryptonite. Don't weaken your stance by prematurely engaging in an impassioned discussion. Benjamin Franklin wrote, He that can have patience can have what he will.

Taurus
April 20-May 20

Paradoxically, turmoil is best avoided by staying in the center of a storm, rather than trying to outrun it. The eye of a hurricane is eerily still because there is always stability when you are motionless, no matter how fast the winds are swirling around you. Thankfully, your saving grace is your ability to remain invulnerable to outside circumstances when you are steadfast in your determination. However, be wary of taking your firm convictions too far. Oscar Wilde wrote, The truth is rarely pure and never simple.

Gemini
May 21-June 20

Your agenda is undeniably etched into stone today, and you're not likely to change it. Your insistence on doing things your way might surprise others, especially if your recent flexibility has led them to believe otherwise. But it's not your job to do the expected, it's to be true to yourself. Demonstrate your productivity by setting your mind on a goal and keeping your eye on the prize until you reach it. Tony Robbins teaches, Your life is controlled by what you focus on.

Cancer
June 21-July 21

There is no question about your motives today. You know what you want and have a plan to get it. However, others may find you so opaque they haven't a clue as to what you're doing or why you're doing it. Although you prefer support from the beginning, it might make more sense now to just go ahead on your own and bring everyone else up to speed in a day or two. Becoming entangled in explanatory conversations will only sap your limited energy away from what needs to be done first. There's time for everything if you proceed with tasks in the proper order.

Leo
July 22-August 22

No matter how much you normally like being the star of the show, your energy is more internally directed today. Your coworkers might express their concern that something is wrong, but this only exacerbates the alienation because it motivates you to pull further away. Fortunately, you can nip this problem in the bud by simply letting others know that you're in an introspective mood now and you'll tell them when you're ready to reengage with the outer world. Post Charles Bukowski wrote, It's necessary for me sometimes just to be alone and quiet and doing nothing.

Virgo
August 23-September 22

You may lose patience with people who appear to be purposelessly wandering through your world today. Meanwhile, you're on a mission and not interested in being distracted by anyone else, especially someone without an obvious goal. You're at the top of your organizational game now, so make the most of your ability to singularly focus while the planets are conspiring on your behalf. Audrey Hepburn said, Opportunities don't often come along. So, when they do, you have to grab them.

Libra
September 23-October 22

You may be a bit on the stingy side today, but it's your most sensible strategy. It serves you well to make sure you don't run short on your limited resources. Naturally, creating a budget is an easier task when there's ample cash flow to cover all expenses. Review your priorities before you make any major decisions about discretionary expenditures. Billionaire Warren Buffett said, Do not save what is left after spending, but spend what is left after saving.

Scorpio
October 23-November 21

You might remain more moderate in your reactions today if you could place a surge protector between you and the outer world. The emotional surf grows wider and cosmic currents are amplified by the evocative Moon's return to your passionate sign. Rather than expending energy by resisting change now, your ability to roll with the incoming waves ultimately strengthens your resolve. Author Kyle Maynard wrote, By releasing control over circumstances, you gain more control over your life.

Sagittarius
November 22-December 21

You may go out of your way to stifle your emotions today because you're afraid of succumbing to their power. You prefer the world of fiery inspiration and choose to swing into action instead of being overwhelmed by your feelings. But even if you surrender to your sensitivity, you still won't reveal your tears to anyone else now. Keep in mind that your concerns about losing objectivity are only justified if you truly believe the head rules the heart - but it does not. Novelist Orson Scott Card wrote, Your trust in rationality makes you irrational.

Capricorn
December 22-January 19

No one can pull a fast one on you today because your senses are like a finely tuned lie detector. There's no reason to explain how you know something is amiss: you can simply feel it in your belly. Nevertheless, avoid jumping to a conclusion just because it supports your previous point of view. Go through the motions of gathering the facts now. Ask plenty of questions, following your intuition as you go. But when it comes time to make your decision known, don't hesitate. Listen to your gut and speak from your heart.

Aquarius
January 20-February 18

You are relentless in the pursuit of success today and you don't want anything or anyone to stand in your way. However, if you encounter resistance, you aren't afraid to wield your power as needed. Although it might be tempting to demonstrate your capabilities, you won't likely make as much progress if you respond to an obstacle with brute force. Instead, use your ingenuity to save the day, for it's what you do best. Steve Jobs said, If you define the problem correctly, you almost have the solution.

Pisces
February 19-March 20

You are passionate about a new idea but might not be ready to put your plan into motion yet. Your vision of the future is a primary driving force in your life now. You believe that you can accomplish nearly anything, but you don't want to blow the current opportunity by acting prematurely. Don't waste energy second-guessing your sense of timing. Remember that holding your ground is also a form of action. Tom Petty wrote, The waiting is the hardest part.
