are sit down occasions with servers bringing your food to the table, restaurant style, for an enjoyable dining experience. There is never a charge for a meal at The Shepherd’s Table. The members of the First Presbyterian Church of Huntingdon and volunteers from the community have been meeting for several months planning the first supper. Arthur Lodge, pastor of the church, said everyone simply saw there was a need and they all wanted to do something about it. Through hours of planning and with help from the volunteers of the Patriot’s Kitchen in Paris, The Shepherd’s Table is now a reality. Mary Lodge, Arthur’s wife and one of the volunteers, has said that she hopes this idea catches fire and that The Shepherd’s Table is able to serve supper at least once a month indefinitely. Volunteer John Wambles says, “This is a task that can only happen with the support and donations from the community.” More information about making donations and volunteering or future dates for supper at The Shepherd’s Table may be obtained by contacting the First Presbyterian Church of Huntingdon. You may call and leave a message at (731) 986-5642.

I would love to meet a white man, 5'9" to 5'10" tall and 74 years old. I turned 74 in July this year. I'm about 5'9" tall, about 180lbs, blue eyes, white hair. Now I'm buying my home on Hwy 105 here at Trezevant but my ceilings are low and Tina and Jimmy had ceiling fans put in each room. I love it out here in the country. So Mr. if you need a nice place to stay, I'm a loving older lady. I do go to church every Sunday and enjoy that. Bro. Adam preaches every Sunday and he's good. Mike Corley is the Sunday School teacher and he is also good. Mr., please write me, let's meet before 2017. My husband died 12-23-06, so he'll be gone 10 years in December. I'm tired of being all alone. Can you help me please? PTP 488

Your Weekly Love Horoscope

Aries March 21-April 19	Taurus April 20-May 20	Gemini May 21-June 20	Cancer June 21-July 22	Leo July 23-August 22	Virgo August 23-September 22
It's as if you're in a race today but you are losing steam. There is still some distance to cover, but you would give anything to be at the finish line now. Unfortunately, the greater your sense of urgency, the farther away your destination seems. Although there are no shortcuts to success, you can change the dynamics by altering your frame of reference. Instead of focusing on the future, bring your attention back to the present moment. When you are feeling the power of now, you'll also experience satisfaction in every step.	Your imagination is kicking up such a storm today that it's difficult to concentrate on meeting your responsibilities. You might not feel very productive now, but the ideas that bubble up from your subconscious mind are fuel for creative ventures later in the day. Don't resist the urge to shift into your fantasies while you can because the Moon's mid-day shift into ambitious Capricorn will set you back on course in time to get your work done. Author David G. Allen wrote, "Patience is the calm acceptance that things can happen in a different order than the one you have in mind."	People may see you as footloose and fancy-free today. They might even express their envy over your clever ability to tap dance around the edges of hard work while everyone else is doing their fair share and more. However, you aren't as carefree as you seem. Once someone looks past your smiling face and happy feet, it is apparent that you are, in fact, pulling your load. Celebrity chef Martin Yan said, "When you enjoy what you do, work becomes play."	You could misread someone's energy by thinking they are encouraging you to take a risk today. However, you eventually realize that the opposite is true. You're the one that wants to break free of your regular routine, and innocently assume that everyone will support you in your endeavor. Recognizing the truth may be a rude awakening that forces you to reconsider your earlier plans. Ralph Nader wrote, "Your best teacher is your last mistake."	Energetically, your day seems to be unfolding backwards. You're not interested in working very hard this morning, and you're brimming with strategies for adding more fun into your life. Paradoxically, you grow more serious about your unfinished business the closer it gets to the end of the workday. By the time evening rolls around, you're ready to jump into a project so you can accomplish something that matters. Philanthropist George Peabody wrote, "Our task is not to bring order out of chaos, but to get work done in the midst of chaos."	You need time today to build enough momentum to find your groove at work. Your lack of productivity is not about being lazy, it just takes extra effort to move from a position of rest into motion. But there's no need to be self-critical while you're in the process of getting up to speed. Everyone is unique and approaches their job from a different perspective. Fortunately, you can surprise yourself and others with how much you accomplish by the end of the day. Stay in your lane and success is yours.

Libra September 23-October 22	Scorpio October 23-November 21	Sagittarius November 22-December 21	Capricorn December 22-January 19	Aquarius January 20-February 18	Pisces February 19-March 20
Although you are often accused of being unable to make up your mind, you possess a clear picture of where you are heading today and how you are going to get there. Unfortunately, you can't seem to put your vision into words now, leading others to believe that you don't care what might happen. Rather than unsuccessfully trying to tell people about your plans, just quietly get to work and let your progress speak for itself. Comedian Steve Martin wrote, "Be so good they can't ignore you."	There is a method to your madness today and left to your own devices, you'll likely meet all your deadlines. Although you're itching to step out of the box, you're afraid of failure when delivery schedules are so tight. Trying something new might save a lot of time, but it could also mean that you find yourself back at the starting gate well after getting off to a bad start. Take risks: if you win, you will be happy. If you lose, you will be wise.	Your high-strung nerves make it difficult to get anything productive done this morning, even if your intentions are pure. You could promise that you'll finish a job by midday, only to realize how far you've fallen behind. Thankfully, the Moon's shift into methodical Capricorn and your pragmatic 2nd house enables you to make up for lost time by working harder and smarter. Rather than wishing you started earlier, be thankful that you were able to shift gears just in time.	You can't figure out why there is a wide emotional distance between you and others today. You don't feel like you're doing anything to cause this rift, but you wonder if your serious nature is putting people off. Fortunately, the Moon's mid-afternoon shift into calculating Capricorn is a perfect opportunity to change up the energy. Its reality quite simple: if you want to dissolve an interpersonal gut, just be trender. The dynamics will transform as quickly as you improve your attitude.	On one hand, you're sleeping deeper into your cocoon and enjoying your time away from all the madhatter crowds. On the other hand, you long for real-time interactions in person, on the phone or via texting. At first glance, it seems as if these two desires are mutually exclusive, but where there is a will, there is a way. Tap into your creativity and find a way to spend more time on both ends of the social spectrum. Variety is the spice of life.	Accomplishing your goals at work is extremely important today because you sense your time is running out. You're already eager for the weekend to begin and assume you can start it early if you meet all your obligations first. Fortunately, everything might unfold according to your schedule. However, weekend activities won't manifest on their own. You must jump in, make plans and then follow through with concrete actions. Believe in what you want so much that it has no choice but to materialize.
