DUN-FOUND-IT GAME FOR APRIL 13, 2017

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Miss Pearl's Country Cookin'

Bean & Bacon Soup

original recipe makes 6-8 servings

1 pound dry Great Northern white beans, covered with a couple inches of water and soaked overnight

5 ounces of bacon, cut into 1/2-inch wide pieces

2 cups chopped onion

3/4 cup chopped celery

3/4 cup chopped carrots

3 cloves garlic, minced (about 1 tablespoon)

6 cups chicken stock

2 bay leaves

1 Tbsp fresh thyme

2 1/2 teaspoons kosher salt

1/4 teaspoon black pepper

3 Tbsp tomato paste

1/2 teaspoon paprika

1 ounce bacon (1 to 2 slices), cooked and crumbled for garnish (optional)

2 Tbsp chopped fresh parsley for garnish (optional)

Drain the beans that have been soaking in water. (If you haven't already soaked the beans, and you don't have time to do so overnight, you can put them in a large pot of water, bring to a boil, remove from heat and let sit for an hour, then drain.) Put the bacon into a large (5 to 6 quart) thick-bottomed Dutch oven on medium high heat. Let the bacon cook for a minute or two to start rendering out some of its fat, then add the chopped onion, celery, and carrots. Lower the heat to low, cover and cook for 12 to 15 minutes, until vegetables are completely cooked through and softened. Add the garlic and cook a minute more. 3 Add the drained beans to the pot. Add the stock, the bay leaves, thyme, salt and pepper. Increase heat to high to bring to a simmer, then lower the heat to maintain a simmer, partially covered, for 1 hour or until the beans are very soft. Stir in the tomato paste and the paprika. Cook for 5 more minutes.

Using an immersion blender, purée most of the soup. You don't want the soup to be perfectly smooth, but you want to purée enough of it so that the beans create a creamy base. Add more salt and pepper to taste. Garnish with crumbled cooked bacon and chopped parsley.

Caramel Apples

original recipe makes 6 apples

1 cup white granulated sugar

1/2 cup (1 stick) unsalted butter

3/4 cup heavy whipping cream

1/2 cup dark corn syrup

1 Tbsp dark molasses

1 teaspoon vanilla extract

1/2 teaspoon salt (omit if using salted butter)

6 sturdy lollipop sticks or chopsticks

6 medium apples (rinsed and patted dry, room temperature)

Assorted decorations (such as chopped nuts, chopped raisins, M&M's & candy sprinkles)

Equipment needed—one accurate candy thermometer.

Place sugar, butter, cream, corn syrup, molasses, vanilla, and salt (omit if using salted butter) in a thick-bottomed 3-4 quart saucepan. Heat on medium to medium low heat and stir slowly with a wooden spoon until the butter has melted and the sugar has dissolved. Let the caramel mixture come to a rolling boil, adjusting the heat so that the caramel doesn't boil over the pan. Continue to stir in a slow figure-eight pattern with a wooden spoon. Monitor the temperature of the caramel with a candy thermometer. When the temperature of the mixture reaches 240°F (after about 15 minutes or so), remove from heat and pour into a metal bowl. Let the hot caramel mixture sit in the bowl until the temperature cools to just below 200°F. While the caramel sauce is cooking and cooling, line a baking sheet with either Silpat or buttered aluminum foil. Insert the sticks (either lollipop sticks, thick wooden skewers, or chopsticks) into the center of the apples through the stem end. When the caramel sauce has cooled sufficiently, working one at a time, dip the apples into the sauce. Swirl each apple around in the sauce so that the caramel sauce completely coats the apple, except for the very top near the stick. Pull the apple up from the sauce and let the excess caramel gently drip back into the bowl. Place the coated apple onto the lined baking sheet. Some caramel sauce will form a little pool at the base of each apple. Refrigerate for 15 minutes. Once the caramel has chilled a few minutes, remove from the refrigerator and press the caramel that has pooled at the bottom of the apples up against the side of the apples. If you are using coatings such as sprinkles or chopped nuts, roll the caramel apples in them now. Then return the apples to the refrigerator and chill for at least another hour.

Carmelized Onion Dip

makes 2 1/2 cups of dip

2 Tbsp olive oil

4 cups chopped yellow onions

1 teaspoon brown sugar

2 Tbsp balsamic vinegar

1/2 teaspoon kosher salt

1/2 teaspoon black pepper

1 cup sour cream

1/2 cup mayonnaise

1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

1/4 teaspoon garlic powder

Heat olive oil in a large, thick-bottomed deep pot on medium high heat. Add the chopped onions and cook until translucent and starting to color, about 10 minutes. If at any point during the cooking of the onions they start to dry out, add a tablespoon of water to the pot. Stir in the brown sugar, balsamic, salt, and pepper. Lower the heat and cook gently, uncovered, for about 25 to 30 minutes, stirring occasionally, until the onions are nicely caramelized. Then set aside. Let cool a bit before adding to the other ingredients. In a medium bowl, mix together the sour cream and mayonnaise. Stir in the caramelized onions. Sprinkle with garlic salt and stir to incorporate. Stir in the Worcestershire sauce. Chill until ready to serve. Serve with potato chips.

Your Weekly Love Horoscope

Aries

March 21-April 19

You don't want to take anyone's word for anything today. You must verify the facts and see the evidence with your own eyes. While you're quick to gather data now that the nimble Gemini Moon is in your 3rd House of Information, you need a bit longer to digest what you learn. Fortunately, you can turn a jumble of bits and pieces into a useful set of knowledge as long as you don't rush the process. You will know when the time is right once everything falls into place.

Taurus

April 20-May 20

You may finally decide to show your hand today. Although you want to play your cards right, it's not your style to make the first move. Perhaps it makes more sense to share your strategy with a confidant before committing to a course of action. Whatever you choose, you want to do it right the first time; you can't just push the undo button in real life. Unfortunately, bluffing your way through an interaction might cause you to lose the game. Neil Armstrong said, "There can be no great accomplishment without risk."

Gemini

May 21-June 20

You're more emotionally sensitive today and you prefer to avoid any long and drawn out discussions. In fact, the witty retorts you usually keep on hand seem fewer in number now. Your words fail to express your deeper feelings when your key planet Mercury drifts into your 12th House of Destiny, encouraging introspection over connection. You may even get a peek at unpublished chapters of your story as you explore the hallways of your imagination. Dieter Uchtdorf wrote, "The desire to create is one of the deepest yearnings of the human soul."

Cancer

June 21-July 22

You would love to call it quits early in the day so you can let your mind float in and out of fantasies at your leisure. However, it's nearly impossible to capture your feelings with words and your most vivid ideas lose their sparkle when you try to share them with your friends. But don't worry if you can't translate the images from your imagination into language just yet. What matters the most is that you cultivate your inspiration and let it feed your heart.

Leo

July 23-August 22

It's odd that as the weekend approaches you should start to feel more serious about your work. But that may be exactly what happens as shrewd Mercury strides into your 10th House of Career, urging you to consider the concrete steps that must be taken to achieve your professional aims. Your dramatic speaking skills garner the attention of associates and superiors. However, don't forget that you need dependable connections just as much as oratory excellence. Building your network as you build your plan for advancement is a winning combination.

Virgo

August 23-September 22

It's as if you're stepping out of the shadows and into the light, where you can clearly see the landscape and the myriad of paths before you. You're ready to methodically explore various prospects in search of the best way to manifest your dreams when your key planet Mercury moves into your 9th House of Future Vision. However, you're not blind to the hard work that also awaits you. Fortunately, there's no one better suited to the task; put your natural talents to work right away so you can enjoy the fruits of your labor even sooner.

Libra

September 23-October 22

Always the limber conversationalist, your mind stretches into a different direction today when your thoughts lead you to more profound places. You're interested in ferreting out the deeper meaning as Mercury the Messenger descends into your 8th House of Transformation, lighting the way to increased self-awareness. However, your sociability is still in play; you're likely to keep your friendly exterior and only share your innermost discoveries with those closest to you. Actress Emma Watson quipped, "The less you reveal, the more people can wonder."

Scorpio

October 23-November 21

Although your feelings are complicated, you don't have to speak in metaphors to make your point today. In fact, keeping your message simple increases the odds of engaging in a meaningful conversation. After all, you don't want to sacrifice the truth for the sake of expediency. Being honest is the first step to creating a stronger emotional bond. Ultimately, it's not distance that keeps people apart, but the lack of communication.

Sagittarius

November 22-December 21

Normally, you're more than happy to go along with a friend on a little adventure. But today you're strangely aware of your looming responsibilities, making it difficult to say yes and feel good about it. Listen to your conscience; it's best to politely decline now and get to work. It's surprisingly gratifying to delay the fun while you dig into the list of chores you typically avoid. French author Gustave Flaubert wrote, "Pleasure is found first in anticipation, later in memory."

Capricorn

December 22-January 19

Although you might already have big plans for the weekend, more appealing ideas begin to take shape today. Perhaps it's been too long since you did something nice just for yourself, yet fleet-footed Mercury tempts you to follow your bliss as the Trickster flies into your 5th House of Play. Giving your brain another activity to focus on broadens your horizons and improves your attitude. Albert Einstein wrote, "Creativity is intelligence having fun."

Aquarius

January 20-February 18

You're looking forward to taking a break from the serious side of life. You're up for just about anything when the playful Gemini Moon dances into your 5th House of Recreation, but you're still stashing away thoughts and ideas to revisit later. There seems to be no end to your intellectual savvy today as you impress your friends by explaining complex concepts in a way that hits home for everyone. Your lighthearted demeanor makes you the life of the party. Groucho Marx said, "If you're not having fun, you're doing something wrong."

Pisces

February 19-March 20

Sometimes the best cure for a restless mind is a quiet night in. However, if you leave yourself with nothing much to do now, your jitters could get the best of you. Wordy Mercury moves into your 3rd House of Writing, inviting you to reacquire yourself with your journal or your blog. Letting your thoughts spill onto the page is cathartic, and there may be some clever gems hidden in between your numerous recollections. William Faulkner wrote, "If a story is in you, it has got to come out."
