Young Eagles Flight Rally The Experimental Aircraft Association Paris Chapter 714 will host a Young Eagles Flight Rally at the Paris Henry County Airport for youngsters ages 8-17 this Saturday May 5th. In case of rain, the date would be pushed to the following Saturday May 12th. Parent or guardian must be present. The rally is part of the EAA Young Eagles Program, created to interest young people in aviation. Since the program was launched in 1992, Volunteer EAA pilots have flown more than 18 million young people who reside in more than 90 countries. Free airplane rides are just a part of the flight rally. The EAA hopes to build one-to-one relationships between pilots and youngsters, giving a new generation a chance to learn more about the possibilities that exist in the world of aviation. Following the flight, each youngster will receive a certificate making him or her an official Young Eagle. Their name will be entered into the "World's Largest Logbook" which is on permanent display in the EAA Air Adventure Museum in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. The youngsters will also receive a Pilot's Flight Log book and for those over 13 or older, a free coupon for a complete on-line flight training course. The Flight Rally begins at 9am at the Airport. For more information on the Young Eagles Program or EAA visit www.eaa.org or www.young eagles.org.

Your Weekly Love Horoscope

Aries March 21-April 19 Ideas that didn't catch your attention yesterday receive your enthusiastic approval today when they pass your way again. The Moon's move into inspirational Sagittarius and your 9th House of Big Ideas makes it possible for you to accomplish nearly anything you believe you can. Although unforeseen complications may trigger uncertainty, you're not ready to give up yet. Whatever you learn now might be annoying at first but isn't significant enough to stop your plans. Retreat, regroup, and retry.	Taurus April 20-May 20 You want you could concentrate on finishing one task before moving on to another, but your processing time strangely now. You understand that many things can occur simultaneously; however, you mistakenly assume that you're capable of juggling multiple streams of reality all at once. Reconsider the best use of your time today and apply yourself accordingly. Its better to have fewer victories than none at all. Buddhist teacher Sogyal Rinpoche said, The key to finding a happy balance in modern life is simplicity.	Gemini May 21-June 20 You are torn between your attraction to variety and your need to follow through on one particular job today. At first, you might think you can have it both ways, but soon realize there aren't enough hours in the day to pursue your passions while still meeting all your obligations. Keep in mind your actions will have lasting impact on how you establish priorities. Demonstrate your maturity by setting aside your personal interests until you have more time on your hands. Focus; otherwise life will become a blur.	Cancer June 21-July 21 Your approach to work is changing as you strive to improve your efficiency. Instead of operating quietly on your own, you're intrigued by participating in more collaborative efforts now. You might be surprised at how much you enjoy the ongoing exchange of information and the sense of camaraderie. Nevertheless, this process may be more emotionally demanding than you realize at first. Make certain that you leave enough time at the end of the day to relax and recharge before doing it again tomorrow. Life is a marathon, not a sprint.	Leo July 22-August 22 Although you may have a long list of objectives to complete today, you're also thinking about your future in less definitive terms. Thankfully, your clarity of purpose enables you to concentrate on a very narrow range of accomplishments now, ensuring that your current efforts will pay off right away. Meanwhile, don't bury your dreams; for they show you the road you can take toward a more rounded sense of satisfaction that goes beyond mere financial success. Mahatma Gandhi said, There is more to life than increasing its speed.	Virgo August 23-September 22 You're quite confident in your ability to carry out your job today, but others might not perceive any difference in your attitude. You're not particularly interested in putting on a show for anyone; you simply want to get the job done so you can move on to other projects. Your self-assuredness won't be noticeable because your channeling your passion into your work. Although you may feel as if you're misunderstood now, people will come around as soon as they see your productivity in action. Benjamin Franklin wrote, Well done is better than well said.
Libra September 23-October 22 Your work agenda isn't very different today from any other day. Its just that you are raising the bar of excellence and you are intent on keeping up with your own expectations. Although you may be more determined than ever to distinguish yourself by striving for perfection, theres always a trade-off between quality and quantity. Unfortunately, theres no quick solution to your dilemma and the more you try to find one now, the more frustrated you will be. Thankfully, redemption comes in the form of self-acceptance.	Scorpio October 23-November 21 You are blessed with the time to wander around in your imagination today, without anyone demanding that you must produce tangible results. Your new frame of reference is already improving your self-esteem and will continue to do so into the future. Find an ally who you can trust throughout this time. But rather than asking for help with a specific task or seeking good advice, you simply need a reliable person to serve as a reality check, should it be necessary. Psychologist Bren Brown wrote, Let go of who you think you are supposed to be and be who you are.	Sagittarius November 22-December 21 Your words and actions are an inspiration to others today, even if your current behavior is nothing unusual to you. In fact, being aware of the impact you have on those around you may motivate you to throw even more of yourself into an ambitious project. Keep in mind, there is a cosmic magic in the air which could turn the tables in your favor. Paradoxically, pushing forward in the face of resistance can be exhausting while simply holding your position propels you toward achieving your goals. Wherever you go, light follows.	Capricorn December 22-January 19 You're riding a wave of optimism today, but might keep the positive vibes all to yourself. However, its not like you're trying to prevent anyone else from experiencing the same excitement; you simply need to contain the energy for it to have the greatest influence on your life. You're not messing around now; you want results and will do nearly anything within reason to achieve them. You could even deprive yourself of minor indulgences because you hope to set an example for others to follow. Author Harold S. Gessen wrote, Leadership is practiced not so much in words as in attitude and in actions.	Aquarius January 20-February 18 Its as if you've raised the stakes of the game today by stepping out of your individual position and becoming part of a group mind. Rather than trying to better your position at work, you're equally interested in the welfare of everyone involved. If you assume a leadership role now, its because others perceive you as someone without special interests who can make decisions for the good of the entire company. Dont let your coworkers down; show them what real team spirit looks like. Poet Ryunosuke Satoro wrote, Individually, we are one drop. Together, we are an ocean.	Pisces February 19-March 20 Your current outlook is not about vague generalities and future possibilities. Instead, you're driven to work overtime, transforming every idea that pops into your mind today into a plan that can bring positive results. Although your comfortable wading philosophic, your simultaneously learning pragmatic. Nevertheless, there are moments when you wish you could meander around in your fantasies without worrying about being productive. Singer Liam Payne said, Dreams are like stars; you may never touch them but if you follow them, they will lead you to your destiny.
