What's Happening?

Paris Landing July 4 Fireworks

Officially Cancelled The annual July 4 fireworks event at Paris Landing State Park—which always draws hundreds of visitors—will not be held this year. Park Manager Zach Tinkle said this morning the official decision has been made to cancel. “In the interest of public safety, we will not be having the 4th of July fireworks this year,” he said. On Tuesday, Tinkle said the official decision was still pending at that point, although officials were leaning toward cancellation. The Paris Landing fireworks traditionally are conducted by the Paris-Henry Co. Jaycees.

LBL Basic Camping Areas

Reopening Basic and Self-Service Camping Areas will be reopening in Land Between the Lakes on Friday, May 15, 2020. Changes have been implemented to self-service camping locations and fees. Developed campgrounds (Hillman Ferry, Energy, Wranglers, and Piney) remain temporarily shut down. For more information as well as an updated list of self service and basic camping areas, go to: <https://www.landbetweenthelakes.us/seendo/camping/basic/>

Cottage Grove Freedom Festival

Cancelled For the first time in decades, the Cottage Grove Freedom Festival has been cancelled for this year. Cottage Grove Volunteer Fire Chief John Weiher announced the decision was made last night at a fire department board meeting. The July 4 Freedom Festival is a main fundraiser for the department each year and always includes live music, concessions, games, fireworks and a parade. Weiher said the decision was made due to complications stemming from the COVID-19 pandemic, including current meat shortages which would affect acquiring supplies for the vendors of the concessions. He also said the state guidelines of no more than 10 people gathering in one place also impacted the decision to cancel. “It was a hard decision to make,” Weiher said. “We didn’t want to do it but that’s the way things stand now.”
