Your Weekly Love Horoscope

Aries

March 21-April 19

You're not happy if someone doubts your integrity today because you have better things to do than to defend your reputation. However, the Moon and Mars are empowering your 8th House of Deep Sharing, allowing you to strengthen a business or personal relationship if you're willing to lay all your cards on the table. You dislike feeling vulnerable, but growth does not occur if you're busy building walls. Take a risk and dismantle the barriers between you and others. Once you reestablish mutual respect, there is no limit to what teamwork can accomplish.

Taurus

April 20-May 20

Relationships built on strong foundations can weather the emotional shifts that come with time. However, it may be tempting to skirt around the edges of honest communication in order to avoid conflict. Unfortunately, choosing the easy way out today is an invitation to more fundamental problems down the road. Bringing unresolved issues out into the open requires courage but it also gives you a chance to seek solutions. There's no getting around it; you must do the hard work if you want partnerships to last.

Gemini

May 21-June 20

You might believe that time is running out and you will miss an awesome opportunity if you don't share your ideas with your colleagues or your boss today. In fact, this line of thinking contains a seed of truth as Venus and the Sun are both near the end of their respective journeys through your communicative sign. As awkward as it seems now, it will be even more difficult to start a conversation in a few days. Strike while the iron is hot or live with a tinge of regret.

Cancer

June 21-July 22

Conflict arises when the gulf between fulfilling your current responsibilities and pursuing your fantasies about the future grows so wide that resolution seems impossible. Fortunately, you're able to live in two worlds today, with one foot on the path to success and the other one on a stairway to heaven. Luckily, the urgency to make your dreams come true today is in your head; time is on your side when your imagination aligns with reality.

Leo

July 23-August 22

Although you may still lack a concrete master plan to get ahead at work, you're growing weary of flying by the seat of your pants. Take some time today to write down your goals, and then add a few sentences about accomplishing each of your various objectives. Don't worry if all the disparate ideas are not flowing into one overarching proposal. Focusing on the minute particulars will eventually lead you to your destination. Even a journey of a thousand miles is accomplished step by step.

Virgo

August 23-September 22

You can talk a good game today, but execution might be more of a challenge. Three planets in chatty Gemini are busy wheeling and dealing in your 10th House of Career, enabling you to dazzle your coworkers with lots of words that fit together into a cohesive strategy. Unfortunately, there is a great difference between theory and practice, and you may be long on theory now and short on practice. Nevertheless, you need to navigate your way through tricky terrain with the confidence of a professional. There is no instruction manual; you must learn as you go.

Libra

September 23-October 22

An unexpected bout of jealousy could hijack your day if you're not getting what you want, especially when someone around you seems to have everything. You might be more attached to the material world while the Moon and Mars in obsessive Scorpio are running the show in your 2nd House of Personal Resources. Unfortunately, the acquisition of more possessions is a dead-end path. Happiness is attainable when you realize that lasting riches are only found through spiritual pursuit.

Scorpio

October 23-November 21

You're not interested in talking about how you can improve your life today; you prefer taking direct action now and then evaluating the consequences in real time. Although sometimes it's tempting to be sidetracked by light-hearted interactions, you want the fastest route to the jugular vein of meaning while the evocative Moon and speedy Mars are conspiring in your passionate sign. Life is very short and there is no time for meaningless distractions.

Sagittarius

November 22-December 21

People seem to be unrealistically demanding of your time today, prompting you to seek solace away from the public eye. You may be quite frustrated with everyone tugging at you in different directions because you know that you can't fulfill all of their expectations and still honor your own needs. Although going off to be a hermit is not your typical response, a mini-retreat will do you good now. Honestly, it's not the worst thing for others to learn that they don't always have to depend on you to raise their spirits.

Capricorn

December 22-January 19

Performing a solo act is not your first choice today. Although sharing the camaraderie of working toward a common goal with others is critical to your happiness now, it's not the only reason you want to be part of a successful team. You fully understand the power of collaboration and the strength that comes with numbers. Since you are so ambitious, it's smarter to bring colleagues in to support your efforts. The lifting power of many wings can achieve twice the distance of any bird flying alone.

Aquarius

January 20-February 18

Your creative spirit fuels your ability to express yourself authentically today. However, you're not willing to walk out on a previous commitment or leave a promise unfulfilled if others are counting on you. Accordingly, you might need to save the spontaneity for another time when there is more flexibility in your schedule. In the meantime, consciously let your inner child out to play for short bursts of time throughout the day. Ultimately, success is a triumph of imagination.

Pisces

February 19-March 20

Just when you thought you knew what was going on, reality gets slippery. A relationship that was going through a stressful phase suddenly appears better. Stress on the home front dissipates; however, if everything suddenly seems perfect, rest assured it's not. Nevertheless, don't go digging for trouble because you'll surely find it. Instead, accept the improvements for what they are and save your energy for when you will need it in the future. As the Buddhist master Thich Nhat Hanh said, "The present moment is the only moment available to us, and it is the door to all moments."
