What's Happening?

Hummingbird Banding at TNWR

The Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge will host the annual hummingbird banding event this Saturday August 12th from 9am to 3pm. The visitor center is located at 1371 Wildlife Drive in Springville. Federally licensed Master Bander, Cynthia Routledge of Southeast Avian Research in Clarksville, will return to lead the banding demonstrations. Using specific tools, she will band each captured hummingbird with a band that has a number that will be unique to that individual bird, much like a bird social security number. Routledge will then take a series of measurements to determine the age and sex of the hummingbird and then the bird will be released. All measurements will be recorded and all information will be turned into the Bird Banding Laboratory in Laurel, Maryland, the central database for all North American bird banding information. The research helps gain information about the lives and habits of hummingbirds such as migration routes, longevity, nesting habits, and more. The banding will take place on the back patio and a presentation on hummingbirds will be held at 11am and 1pm. The day also includes fun for the whole family such as arts and crafts, coloring tables, and other activities. During lunch, Friends of the Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge will grill hotdogs and have meals for sale on the patio. All proceeds benefit hosting future program. For more information on this event or any others call 642-2091.

Morning flights begin at 7:30am, afternoon flights start at 1pm, or immediately following the morning. Lunch will be served, sponsored by Kroger. Prizes will be awarded for 1st, 2nd, and 5th place in both flights. JC Educational and Office Supply will sponsor music during the day and the lineup includes Arista Manning Band from 2-4pm, Ray Lewis Band, from 5-8pm, and Rockin Randall French starting at 8pm. Your Weekly Love Horoscope

Aries
March 21-April 19

Just when you think your mind has fully grasped the current situation, the plot shifts in ways you don't expect. Perhaps someone's honest disclosure seems to be a positive step today, only to watch the conversation fall over an emotional cliff. You might try to change the direction of your discussion, but there's no stopping it once it ventures into such sensitive territory. Set aside your previous agenda and enter the unknown willingly. There is a nugget of gold awaiting your discovery if you have the courage to maintain an open mind throughout the process.

Taurus
April 20-May 20

Someone may be trying to change your mind when it comes to your long-term plans. You're willing to discuss your preferences and negotiate the details as they concern the other person. But you're likely to grow infuriated now if you think anyone is manipulating the situation for their own means. You deserve to be heard if you believe you're being wronged. However, you can grow so attached to your story that everything else is bent out of shape. Nevertheless, don't be afraid to fight back if a coworker tries to ignore or minimize your concerns. Politician Frank A. Clark said, "If you find a path with no obstacles, it probably doesn't lead anywhere."

Gemini
May 21-June 20

Navigating through emotionally agitated waters is particularly challenging today. You can't decide whether this is an amazing opportunity to experience a deeper level of intimacy or an unnecessary excursion into the fundamental differences that plague a relationship. The reality is that all interactions grow more complicated when unconscious drives and fears are brought to the surface. However, this is also the best time to break through old patterns that prevent you from fully shining your love light. Psychologist Rollo May wrote, "Intimacy requires courage because risk is inescapable."

Cancer
June 21-July 22

Oftentimes, you know what you want but are hesitant to reveal your preferences for fear of rejection. Unfortunately, a coworker or partner may step in today, filling the gap by telling you what he or she expects. Although you might be shocked by someone's directness now, you could also feel angry because their approach leaves you with little choice but agreement. Instead of seething quietly while going along with the plan, stop this power play before things get out of control. Stand up for your rights; saying yes to happiness means learning to say no to people who stress you out.

Leo
July 23-August 22

You are sitting pretty in the driver's seat today, thinking nothing you encounter at work can change the dynamics. Unfortunately, you might need to reconsider your assumptions as obstacles appear in the road. At first, you grin and grit your teeth; you're not afraid of handling difficult situations as they arise. However, there comes a time to retreat if you're making little or no progress. But there is no shame in backing up, improving your plan and trying again. Oscar Wilde wrote, "Experience is the hardest kind of teacher. It gives you the test first and the lesson afterward."

Virgo
August 23-September 22

You will do whatever it takes to express yourself today. You want to present your latest idea, reveal your feelings or make an artistic statement, even if others might be surprised or offended by your message. Your goal is not to make waves; you simply need to be seen and heard now. However, you can modify your behavior but people's reactions are out of your control. Go ahead with your plans as long as you're willing to deal with the consequences of your actions. There's no need to trade in your authenticity for approval.

Libra
September 23-October 22

The finger of fate is reaching out to touch you, altering your relationships in ways not yet apparent. Although optimism is fueling your fantasies, reality is demanding your full attention today. You prefer to follow your heart's commands, but previous commitments won't be satisfied unless you maintain a pragmatic approach to life now. Thankfully, your superpower is your ability to balance two extreme approaches, so meet your obligations and continue to explore your desires. Thoreau wrote, "Go confidently in the direction of your dreams! Live the life you've imagined."

Scorpio
October 23-November 21

You thrive on the intensity of today's cosmic connections because you can maintain a positive outlook while digging into the darkness of the unknown. Naturally, you respect the power of the subconscious, but you also know that the best magic occurs in the least explored recesses of your mind. It may be wonderful if you find a companion to share this little excursion now, but it could turn messy if they can't handle the energy. Remember, it's better to be alone than to be with someone who makes you feel alone. If in doubt, make this quest a solo flight.

Sagittarius
November 22-December 21

Your friends and coworkers are like a breath of fresh air today, filling the sails of your dreams with the winds of support. You feel lifted by their presence in your life. However, a deep dark secret may be quietly gnawing at the back of your mind, preventing you from luxuriating in the good will all around you now. Although it's tempting to ignore the unpleasant thoughts, denial only gives them more power over your day. Instead of judging yourself, engage your fears and embrace them. Accepting your past allows you to move freely into your future.

Capricorn
December 22-January 19

You are a powerhouse of ambition and your current intensity could frighten others today. Although no one wants to stand in your way, someone may take on the role of your nemesis. Be measured in your response, for the more you try to overcome the resistance you face, the stronger it grows. Your simple act of listening to the needs of others minimizes the stress. In fact, your obsessive belief that nothing can impede your progress is what actually produces the current obstacles. Don't be upset when it rains if you create your own storm.

Aquarius
January 20-February 18

You don't want to let anyone see your dark side today, so you consciously project a cheerful image in all that you do. Unfortunately, your actions do not fully camouflage what's lurking in your heart. Much to your chagrin, others can clearly see through your charade now. In the final analysis, your duplicity is probably worse than whatever you are hiding. Columnist Ann Landers wrote, "The naked truth is always better than the best-dressed lie."

Pisces
February 19-March 20

Stealth motives -- yours or someone else's -- can confuse your relationships at work today. It's as if there are two levels of reality in operation. The outer appearances display an upbeat energy with everyone engaged in their tasks while mutually supporting one another. But what you don't see now can be rather disturbing. An undercurrent of ruthless competition creates awkward interpersonal dynamics that may be destructive in the long run. Author Mandy Hale wrote, "Sometimes the best thing you can do is keep your mouth shut and your eyes open. The truth always comes out in the end."
