Final Check-in @ Paris Landing State Park

Win Big Money at the Paris-Henry County Chamber of Commerce's Water Fun Run

One of the best things about Kentucky Lake in July is the annual Paris-Henry County Chamber of Commerce Water Fun Run! On Saturday July 15th from 10:00 am until 4:00 pm hundreds of lake lovers on boats and jet skis of all shapes and sizes will spend the day visiting area resorts, soaking up the sun, and playing for their chance to win one of three $500.00 grand prizes. This poker run on the water will take you to Cypress Springs, Cypress Bay, The Breakers, Fat Daddy's, Mansard Island, Pleasant View, and Leath-erwood Resorts. There will also be a couple of “party boats” floating around to increase your odds. Players must visit at least 5 for their chance to win. Then float on back to Paris Land-ing State Park by 2:00 pm, 3:00 pm, or 4:00 pm where you'll draw cards and find out which lucky player ends up with the best 5 card hand.

To sign up contact the Chamber at 731-642-3431 or stop by the office at 2508 E. Wood St, in Paris. Registra-tion packets are also available and any of the par-ticipating resorts. Don't miss the fun!

LAND BETWEEN THE LAKES OFFERS ECLIPSE VIEWING AND PROGRAMMING

Land Between the Lakes National Recreation Area will offer prime viewing locations for the Great American Eclipse on August 21 and “Sun and Moon Days” August 16-23, 2017, a series of programs throughout the 170,000 acre facility to celebrate and educate about this amazing natural phenomenon. Visitors looking for a prime spot to watch the Great American Eclipse are invited to Land Between the Lakes. Eye protection, free parking and food vendors will be available at Fenton, near the Eggner’s Ferry Bridge on Highway 68/80 in western Kentucky. The duration of the total solar eclipse at this location will be two minutes, according to NASA (<https://eclipse2017.nasa.gov/eclipse-maps>).

Other viewing areas in Kentucky and Tennessee are listed at <https://landbetweenthelakes.us/best-2017-eclipse-viewing-areas/>.

Eye protection is vitally important during this event and viewing glasses are available now at Land Between the Lakes gift shops and outposts. Sunglasses are not adequate. Sun and Moon

Days will feature eclipse related programming at three facilities.

Golden Pond Planetarium and Observatory will show TOTALITY (which is already in the weekly schedule), at 11am and 2pm, August 16-23, to teach about eclipses. There will be an eclipse star party at 8:45 pm on August 19 and solar viewing from 10am – 4pm

Farmers Choose Downtown Paris

The City of Paris, Henry County Fair Association and the Downtown Paris Association are cooperating to again bring the Farmers Market to downtown Paris. The location is at the northwest corner of Ruff Street and North Market Street. The corner parking lot will be available for Farmers Market vendors only on Tuesdays and Fridays beginning Friday, June 9th. The adjacent City lot to the immediate west is available for customer parking as well as the lot across the street from the Market. The Market opens on Tuesdays and Fridays at 3:00 PM and remains open until the produce is sold out.

Kathy Ray, Executive Director of the Downtown Paris Association stated, "We are very happy to be able to host the Market Downtown, and we appreciate the City's assistance. The farmers decide each year where the market will be located. The DPA is the coordinating entity. The DPA is ready to help the Farmers in any way possible. We are very pleased to have 18 vendors signed up this year. We hope the market customers enjoy a cooler market area with the new shade sails

Downtown Spooktacular, a Howling Good Time

The twelfth annual downtown Spooktacular, sponsored by the Downtown Paris Association (DPA), promises a howling good time on the Henry County Court House lawn on Saturday afternoon, October 21st. Organizations and businesses will provide free crafts, entertainment, contests with prizes, live music and concessions from noon until 3:00 p.m. Downtown merchants invite children to trick or treat during Spooktacular which is sponsored by the DPA.

“This is a fantastic, annual festival that’s a tradition for many families,” said Spook Meister Rick Conger of Paris Karate Studio. “Where else can folks enjoy free crafts and games, hear live music from the Inman Pep Band, win prize money and enjoy delicious treats, to boot?” Throughout the event children can visit with DPA booth partners for many games and activities.

The Lions Club, a Spooktacular partner, will have fun contests and games from 1:00 to 1:30. The DPA's famous Pumpkin Patch Pete will be on hand so you can guess Pete's weight and win DPA bucks. On Halloween day, the winner will be announced and will receive $100 in DPA bucks, just in time for Christmas Open House weekend, November 3-5.

Along with downtown's variety of restaurants serving delicious fare, Perry's BBQ and the Inman Band Boosters will be on site with concessions.

"Don't have a costume? It's fun to come out and just enjoy the show," said DPA Executive Director Kathy Ray. "There are hundreds of costumed children on parade, dancing, howling, delicious food, music and other activities, all in a fabulous setting, beautiful Downtown Paris!"

"Spooktacular is one of our signature events for the entire family," said Kathy Ray. "This is a free event that gives the youngsters of our community the opportunity to trick or treat during daylight hours and enjoy fun activities on our historic Court House lawn, courtesy of the many partnering businesses and organizations. This DPA event is sponsored by Carroll Bank, Commercial Bank, FirstBank, and Security Bank"

Call Spook Meister Rick Conger at (731) 642-7425 or Kathy Ray at (731) 653-7274 for information. In case of rain, the event will be cancelled.

Scarecrows are coming to the Court Square

"Scarecrows on the Square" is sponsored by the Downtown Paris Association (DPA). Kathy Ray, DPA Executive Director said, "Last year was our first year for this event. It added a festive, seasonal look to our beautiful downtown Court Square. It is a great opportunity to let your creativity take hold and have some fun. We encourage you to be environmentally conscious and recycle items to fit with the theme of your group, school, or business. Use a theme and name that fits your group's personality or celebrate Paris history with a historic Paris figure!" Carly Wheat, DPA Committee chair said, "Scarecrows will be judged the third week of October. Scarecrows will be judged on originality, construction, and presentation. Cash prizes will be awarded for People's Choice, Most Original, Best Constructed, and Best in Show. Winners will be announced on October 21st at Spooktacular."

Application forms are available at the DPA office, 203 N. Fentress Street or on line at www.VisitDowntownParis.com. Bring the completed form to the DPA office,
