Win Cash and Prizes at the Henry County Chamber of Commerce's Water Fun Run

give you a card for every stamp your received. Your winning hand is your best five cards. The best hand during each designated hour of check in wins $500 in cash! The Chamber has also added some other fun prizes and cash give-aways to the Fun Run. Make sure you are there to find out more info about those! More winners means more happy people.

The past few years some of the featured resorts included, Buchanan Resort, Cypress Bay, Fat Daddy's, Leatherwood and Paris Landing State Park. The Fun Run begins promptly at 9am and the last boat in should be no later that 4pm. Disqualifications will apply to boats not attempting to dock by the designated time. Also, every Fun Run as an imaginative theme. Some of the most popular themes in the last few years have been the Gilligan's Island theme, Cheeseburger in Paris-Dise, Red Neck Yacht Club and River Rats. Decorations, costumes and accessories are definitely encouraged! A collector's tee shirt has become one of the prize possessions from each Fun Run. Make sure and get yours early. The last few years they have been sold out.

Registration packs are usually available at the Henry County Chamber of Commerce beginning at the first week of June. Preregistration is $20, registration on the day of the Water Fun Run is $25. The packets are available at the Chamber office and the various resorts participating in the Fun Run. You may register up to the beginning time of the Fun Run on July 20th.

The Water Fun Run is always an awesome way to conclude your summer on the lake. Even if you don't end up with the best hand of the day, just cruising the lake was worth the time and effort. Get some sun, enjoy some cold beverages and have some quality time with your friends and family. That is what the Water Fun Run is really about. And, a some lady luck and cold hard cash doesn't hurt either. For more info contact the Henry County Chamber of Commerce at www.paristnchamber.com.

A little luck never hurts in a good game of poker. Especially when you are playing against hundreds of other people. The Henry County Chamber of Commerce's Water Fun Run, is one of the biggest and most unique poker runs in our area. Be at Paris Landing State Park, Saturday, July 20th and find out what all of the talk is about. And if luck is on your side you might take home a big pile of cash.

The Water Fun Run is a huge poker run that uses boats and other forms of fun watercraft! The stops are the beautiful resorts that are located all around Kentucky Lake. When you register for the Fun Run you get a sheet for collecting stamps at the resorts. The more resorts you visit, the more stamps you get. When you check back in at Paris Landing State Park by the deadline the dealers

Antique Cars, Tractors and Ice Cream Booths Fill Downtown Paris

The 10th Annual Ice Cream Social & Antique Car & Tractor Show will fill historic downtown Paris on the last Saturday in July, July 27th, from 4:00 – 6:30 pm. Sponsored by the Downtown Paris Association (DPA), the event benefits the Down-sociation and Plus Endowment.

“This has become an end-of-summer tradition that folks of all ages look forward to,” said DPA Executive Director Kathy Ray. “Everyone with an event wristband can enjoy free ice cream from each booth, a “KidsZone” area with fun activities with face painting, and crazy contests; it’s definitely the coolest fundraiser around, no pun intended.” Wristbands are available for a minimum donation of $10 for adults or $5 for children 12 and under. They can be purchased from the DPA, members of

Plus Endowment, ice cream booth partners, and at the event.

We currently have 18 booth partners for the event. There are still openings for booth partners. If you would like to have a booth to promote your organization or company, please contact the DPA office. The deadline for booth partners is July 19th. Some booths will be wild and crazy. Some will be very sane. Some of the ice cream will be homemade and some will be straight from the grocery shelf. Some will partner with other organizations. Some will be single scoopers. Some will win valuable prize. Some will be satisfied with their scoop-tacular memories. Awards will be presented for the Best Ice Cream, the Best Theme, and Best of Show. At the end of the afternoon, lots of fun will have been had, lots of ice cream will have been eaten, lots of photos taken, and lots of money will have been raised .

The Antique Car Show brings vehicles in from four states and there will be 80 to 90 classic cars, according to Kathy Ray. Registration is a minimum donation of $10 which includes an event wristband. "Votes (25 cent donations) are tallied throughout the event," said Ray. "At 6:30 pm the car and tractor with the most votes will each win a Peoples' Choice Award Trophy. The Antique Tractor Show is relatively new to the event.

Last year brought out several tractors and we hope to showcase more this year. Registration process is the same as the Car Show.

Also, for a donation of $5, you can get in some fun contests!

Small Town of Big Sandy Holds the State's Largest Duck Blind Drawing

Big Sandy, Tennessee is typically not known for being the largest of anything. It is a very small town with a small population and just a handful drawing. Tennessee holds several drawings throughout the state on this day. The Big Sandy drawing covers more than 80 duck blinds, not only in dors set up with the latest in waterfowl hunting equipment and accessories like weapons, ammo and hunting safety clothing. You will also find a wide variety of duck calls and decoys. The demonstrations are always popular with the crowd, too. There are duck call contests, as well as, dog retrieval showcases. As with any festival there is always good food on hand, too. The events are open to the public and free of charge.

Remember to be in the small town of Big Sandy for the largest Duck Blind Drawing and Waterfowl Festival in the state of Tennessee on Saturday, August 3rd. If you duck hunt you will not want to miss it.

But for the fans of waterfowl and duck hunting, Big Sandy is the most popular spot in the entire state to register for the TWRA duck blind drawing.

Hundreds of hunters gather at the Big Sandy City Park on the first Saturday in August to attend the Waterfowl Festival and register for the duck blind

Big Sandy, but also in Camden, Harmon's Creek and Gin Creek areas.

Registration begins at promptly at 7am. The duck blinds are drawn by hand and begin at 10am. Map locations and GPS coordinates can be found at www.tnwildlife.org.

The Waterfowl Festival has a whole lot more going on besides just the duck blind drawing. There are ven-

McKenzie Keeps Alive Our Favorite Southern Traditions – Sweet Tea and Fried Foods

Legend has it that the sweetest place in Tennessee is McKenzie during the Southern Fried and Sweet Tea Festival. It will be really hard to find a way to end the perfect summer than with some deep fried goodies and a big ole Mason jar filled with sweet iced tea. Well, you might want to add some lemons!

Downtown McKenzie is the place to be on the evening of Friday, August 23rd and all day on Saturday, August 24th. The Southern Fried and Sweet Tea Festival may be a new event to our area but it has grown tremendously in popularity from year to year.

The best way to spend a warm summer evening is with a cold glass of sweet tea while you listen to some live music. You can find all of that and more in Downtown McKenzie on Friday night. The stage will be set up and ready for a great show. All you have to do is show up and bring your own lawn chair. The Kid's Zone will be set up for the little guys, with all sorts of jumpers and inflatables to play on. You will also find carnival rides more suited for the younger children, as well

Friday night is just the appetizer for the Main Event on Saturday. Jam-packed is one way to describe all the happenings at the Southern Fried and Sweet Tea Festival. You need to make plans to spend the entire day in downtown McK-enzie or you will surely miss something that everyone else will be talking about. Every where you turn there will be food vendors with mouth-watering deep fried treats. Corn dogs, french fries, hush puppies, Twinkies, Oreos, you name it, they will fry it! All of this can only be

Once you have tried out all of the treats it will be a great time to check out the Arts and Crafts Booths and the various vendors selling everything under the sun. The carnival rides and the Kid’s Zone will still be set up for kids to enjoy, too.

Live music can make or break any event. The Sweet Tea Festival is knows for their excellent line-ups. Past performers have included. No Time Flatt, Mike Hightower & Friends, Tera Townsend, The Longshot Band and everyone’s favorite performer, Paula Bridges. The music is open to the public and there is no charge. Feel free to bring a chair and stay awhile. The kids can play, there will be plenty to eat and drink and the music will be awesome. Sounds like plans for the perfect Saturday night in McKenzie!

If you haven’t visited yet, now is the time to make plans to go. Set aside Friday and Saturday, August 23rd and 24th for a road trip to McKenzie, Tennessee. The Southern Fried and Sweet Tea Festival is sure to have something to hit your spot! Visit their Facebook page. More information will be available closer to the event.

Shop Til You Drop On The Bargain Highway in Benton County, Tennessee

30 Mile Yard Sale along what they call the “Bargain Highway.” The 30 Mile Yard Sale officially begins on Friday, August 30th and runs thru Labor Day, September 2nd. But you can bet some people will start as early as that Wednesday. Sometime some of the best bargains can be had when you visit people while they are setting up!

miles long and goes from Interstate 40 thru Holladay, up Highway 641 to Camden and then down Highway 69 to Big Sandy, to the Henry County line. Watch for signs that say Bargain Highway. Also, many side roads will have signs indicating their street is also having yard sales.

The Yard Sale hours are traditionally from dawn until dusk. During daylight hours are the best times to avoid accidents on the highways and to make sure that people that are prowling around in your yard are only looking for yard sale treasures.

Anyone that is a fan of a good bargain needs to keep their Labor Day weekend free! Along with the assistance of the Benton County Chamber of Commerce the cities of Camden, Holladay and Big Sandy in Northwest Tennessee hold the

The 30 Mile Yard Sale is truly a bargain hunter's paradise. You can find anything from household items to furniture, used items to new in the box items, baked goods to appliances that help do the baking. This is also a great time to view automobiles and homes in the area for sale.

The Chamber of Commerce sponsors a $1000 giveaway during the 30 Mile Yard Sale. Anyone participating in the yard sale can go by the Chamber and register as an official stop along the Bargain Highway. Your home or place of business will be indicated on a map that the Chamber will give out during the holiday weekend. You register at any of the official stops while you are out shopping. The times your register the more chances you have to take home the cash!

It would be easy to make this a week-end adventure. Camden has several nice motels and plenty of places to eat. Bring along the whole family, there are plenty of sites to see for those that are not into bargain hunting. The could visit the Pearl Farm, the Folklife Museum or Patsy Cline's Plane Crash Site.

The Yard Sale has been happening for way more than a decade and the locals have it down to an art form. Come experience it for yourself.

Days – Education Heritage, Banking & their anniversaries, Down On The Farm – Agricultural Heritage and the Tennessee Bicentennial Heritage.

The Heritage Festival also presents awards to the Citizen of the Year and has an award for The Pioneer Family of the Year. Both awards are designed to bring attention to the founders of Huntingdon, as well as, the future of the city.

Events all around town will include lots of activities for the children. There will be inflatables, face painting, games and prizes and a petting zoo. Everyone can enjoy the Flea Market and Arts and Crafts tables. Plenty of food and beverage vendors will be around to handle anyone's hunger or thirst. Live music will be the main source of entertainment all throughout the day along with some lively storytelling.

The Heritage Festival is one of those events that perfectly pairs the importance of remembering the past with celebrating the here and now with family and friends. Huntingdon is the perfect backdrop for such an event, too. Visit the Heritage Festival, Saturday, September 27th, located in the county seat of Carroll County, Tennessee.

Spend A Day at One of Our Beautiful Lakes

It just wouldn't be summer time in Northwest Tennessee without a visit to the lake! We are fortunate that we have so many lakes to choose from in our area. All of them are stocked and ready for fish-

Lake is a newer man made area built specifically for recreation of all sorts. There are boat ramps for easy access to the water. So it is a great place to spend the day fishing, or skiing or just boating tables, pavilions, restrooms and concessions. If you are into RV camping there is also a RV park located at the lake with electricity and water available. Reelfoot Lake covers 15,000 acres and is the largest naturally occurring lake in the state of Tennessee. It is located in Lake and Obion Counties in the Northwest part of the state. Reelfoot Lake is a huge attraction for that area. It is

ing. And nothing takes the sizzle off a hot summer day like a dip in the cool water or a relaxing boat ride!

There are a few lakes in our area that are just so magnificent they need a special shout out! Like the Carroll County Thousand Acre Recreation Lake. Take Boyd's Landing Road in Huntingdon, Tennessee to one of the main entry ways to the lake parking areas. The Thousand Acre leisurely around the lake.

Conveniently the lake is divided into two areas. Two thirds of the lake is dedicated to skiing and boating and jet skiing and one third is for fishing. If you want to take the risk, fishing is also permitted in the sporting area as well as from the shore. There are designated swimming areas, too.

Around the lake you will find beaches, picnic in the Southeast United States.

Again there is nothing that you can want to do by or in the water that you can't find to do at Kentucky Lake. The beautiful water and surroundings are the perfect backdrop for your summer day. Take a pole and catch some fish, take a boat and do some skiing, take some trunks and swim all day or take a camera and make memories that you always have. There are endless possibilities for adventure and excitement at Kentucky Lake.

It is a win win situation when visiting any of the lakes in this area. Rather you are spending the day with family or taking a day of solitude a day by the water is a day well spent! Enjoy the lakes in our area.

not only a boater's paradise but a great place for hunting as well. Reelfoot Lake State Park features all the amenities you would want to find when you wanting to spend the day outside but necessarily wanting to rough it. There are boat ramps and beaches, picnic areas and restrooms. The State Park features events like one of the largest arts and craft's festivals in West Tennessee. They also hold duck blind drawings and a waterfowl festival here, too. You can camp on the primitive sites available or rent one of the rustic cabins on site. The Reelfoot Lake State Park office is located at 2595 Hwy 21E, Tiptonville, Tennessee and friendly staff is available.

Kentucky Lake is the largest man-made lake in the Eastern United States. It covers nearly 160,300 acres, with more than 2,400 miles of shoreline. The lake itself is located in counties in Western Kentucky, Western and Middle Tennessee. It is surrounded by four state parks, two county parks and five municipal parks. There are 92 commercial recreational areas around Kentucky Lake, as well as, 10 campgrounds and 48 public access areas.

The wildlife also love to live around Kentucky Lake. Two wildlife management areas, three small wildlife areas and the Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge are also located around the lake. The numerous boat docks not only make this an excellent site for fishing but is one of the most popular destinations for fishing tournaments

Downtown Spooktacular, a Howling Good Time!

The fourteenth annual downtown Spooktacular, sponsored by the Downtown Paris Association (DPA), promises a howling good time on the Henry County Court House lawn on Saturday afternoon, October 19th. Organizations and businesses will provide free crafts, entertainment, contests with prizes, live music and concessions from noon until 3:00 p.m. Downtown merchants invite children to trick or treat during Spooktacular which is sponsored by the DPA.

"This is a fantastic, annual festival that's a tradition for many families," said Spook Meister Rick Conger of Paris Karate Studio. "Where else can folks enjoy free crafts and games, hear live music from the Inman Pep Band and friends, win prize money and enjoy delicious treats, to boot?"

Throughout the event children can visit with DPA booth partners for many games and activities.

The Lions Club, a Spooktacular partner, will have fun contests and games from 12:30 to 1:00. The DPA's famous Pumpkin Patch Pete will be on hand so you can guess Pete's weight and win DPA bucks. On Halloween day, the winner will be announced and will receive $100 in DPA

Along with downtown's variety of restaurants serving delicious fare, Perry's BBQ and the Inman Band Boosters will be on site with concessions.

"Don't have a costume? It's fun to come out and just enjoy the show," said DPA Executive Director Kathy Ray. "There are hundreds of costumed children on parade, dancing, howling, delicious food, music and many booths with activities, all in a fabulous setting of beautiful Downtown Paris! Don't forget to vote for your favorite scarecrow at the DPA booth. The winners of Scarecrows on the Square will be announced at 3."

"Spooktacular is one of our signature events for the entire family," said Kathy Ray.
