A Special Supplement of the Peddler Advantage

Santa Arrives for North Pole Family Fun Day

 Don't miss the Peddler online every week!
facebook.com/peddleradvantage

(Paris, TN) Santa along with Mrs. Claus, Rudolph, Christmas Mouse and the elves roll into downtown Paris on the big, red fire engine November 23rd, Friday morning at 10:00 am, the day after Thanksgiving kicking off North Pole Family Fun Day, an annual event sponsored by the Downtown Paris Association (DPA). With more than a dozen free activities for busy little hands, the fun lasts from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. in West Tennessee's festive downtown shopping hub.

"I can't wait to see all of the good little boys and girls in Henry County," said Santa in an exclusive satellite interview from the North Pole. "Rudolph, the elves and I love our gingerbread house on the Court Square. We'll be visiting with the youngsters each Saturday and until noon. Every half hour (10:30, 11:00, 11:30; 12:00, 12:30, 1:00, 1:30), members of the HCHS Speech Team will read The Polar Express at the beautifully decorated Old Depot on Fentress Street, now Vicky Muzzall's Tax Service. "Miss Vicky even gives away free train whistles to all of the youngsters," said Santa.

Candlelight Advent Walk Heralds the Season

(Paris, TN) The Candlelight Advent Walk ushers in the Christmas season Wednesday evening, November 28th from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Worshipers will hear the message of Advent in beautifully decorated churches while proceeding by family friendly candlelight through the historic downtown area.

"This is a very unique way to usher in the Advent Season," said First United Methodist Church Pastor, Joe Hansen, who chairs the 2018 Advent Walk Committee. "This year we are focusing on A Micah 6:8 Christmas...Do Justice, Love Mercy, and Walk Humbly." With three stops during the walk, the Advent Walk program will conclude by 7:30 p.m. Participating downtown churches and the Downtown Paris Association sponsor the annual event. According to the DPA Executive Director, Kathy Ray, "It's a great opportunity to worship with other churches, enjoy their meaningful decorations of the season and stroll through our charming Victorian town square while visiting with our friends and neighbors."

The service begins at 6:30 p.m. at the Main Entrance of the Henry County Courthouse on Washington Street with family friendly candles provided by the Downtown Paris Association.

Worshippers will be welcomed by Pastor Joe Hansen and Dr. Trent Bullock at the Courthouse. We will proceed to First Presbyterian Church and hear from Rev. Carol Wade, interim pastor. Then on to First Christian Church to hear a message from Rev.

Cory Glover and Dr. John Dandridge. We will then proceed to the First United Methodist Church Christian Life Center for refreshments. For more information on Christmas events downtown, log on www.VisitDowntownParis.com.

1 1/2 tbsp dark brown sugar
 1 large egg
 3/4 tsp vanilla
 2 cups flour
 3/4 tsp baking soda
 3/4 tsp salt
 1 1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate chips
 1 1/2 cup white chocolate chips
 3/4 cup crunch peanut butter (hold for topping)
 Toppings: holiday sprinkles, white yogurt covered pretzels, M & M's, small tubes of icing to drizzle on top.

Directions: beat first 4 ingredients at medium speed until creamy. Add egg and vanilla, blend well. Combine flour, soda and slat. Gradually add to butter mixture, beating well with each addition. Stir in 3/4 cup each of semi-sweet and white chips. Spread dough evenly onto 2 lightly greased 8" round pie pans. Bake at 374 degrees for 25-30 minutes or until lightly browned. Work quickly, sprinkle crust with remaining 3/4 cup each of semi-sweet and white chips. Drop peanut butter by tbsp onto curst over chips. Let stand 5-10 minutes or until chips and peanut butter are softened, gently mix and spread over crust. Decorate with desired holiday toppings and drizzle pizza with white icing. Allow to cool completely.

(Paris, TN) Get in the Christmas spirit as the Downtown Paris Association presents Festival of Trees. A Christmas tree showcase, Festival of Trees is a yuletide event that has become a holiday tradition. Local businesses, organizations, schools, and groups will display as many as 30 beautifully decorated trees.

Applications are available at the DPA office located at 203 North Fentress Street as well as the DPA website, www.VisitDowntownParis.com.

Applications are due Friday, November 16th.

“Festival of Trees is a huge success each year and we are excited to have this event on the Court Square at The Old Paris 5 & 10 Event Center located at 110 W. Washington Street,” according to Kathy Ray, Executive Director of DPA. “Be sure to bring your camera for the perfect Christmas family photograph.”

The Festival of Trees will open December 4th at 8 a.m. with the DPA

Chamber Coffee. At the opening, nine awards will be presented to winners in the following categories: “Most Creative” first, second and third places, “Most Traditional” first, second and third places, “Best Theme”, “Out of the Box”, and “Best of Show”. “People’s Choice” will be presented at the conclusion of the event on December 19th. Hours are Tuesday through Friday, 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM; Saturdays 10:00 am to 2:00 pm; and Sundays 1:00 to 4:00 pm. A dollar donation is requested from each visitor.

Festival of Trees will be open December 4th through December 19th. Staffing will be overseen by the Downtown Paris Association. If you would like to volunteer at this year’s Festival of Trees please contact Kathy Ray at 653-7274.

W.G. Rhea Elementary is Featured School at Holly Jolly Electric Christmas Parade

(Paris, TN) W.G. Rhea Elementary School has been selected as the featured school of the 12th Annual Holly Jolly Electric Christmas Parade, and they are bringing plenty of Christmas smiles, courtesy of their K-2 student body. The parade is scheduled for Saturday, December 8 at 5:00 pm, immediately following the Downtown Christmas Festival.

“When I say our students are bringing Christmas smiles, some of them will be bringing those terrific, ‘All I want for Christmas is my Two Front Teeth’ kind of smiles,” said Principal Chris Hudgins of his five to eight-year-old student body. This is a great age for children to begin participating in community events such as the Holly Jolly Electric Christmas Parade and we will be bringing our ‘A’ game to the parade.

“Because our students are so young, this will be the first parade many of them have ever attended, so we want it to be a stand-out event for them,” said Assistant Principal Lynda Searcy.

“Mama Claus visited them earlier in the school year to tell them that Rhea had been chosen as the featured school and they were so thrilled.”

W. G. Rhea Elementary was founded in 1968 as a K-5 school.

Mama Claus recently stopped by the kindergarten class of Mrs. Belinda Davis to tell her students that W.G. Rhea had been chosen as the 1st Annual Holly Jolly Electric Christmas Parade Featured School.

In 1989, the Paris Special School District (PSSD) clustered into like grades and Rhea became the K-1 school. In 1995, an addition was built on for the second grade, and a pre-school wing was added on in 2008.

In the last decade, the school has embarked on a three-phase construction project that culminated this year with new traffic lanes, a new wing to house first and second grade classes, a new office area, and a new reading center, according to Hudgins.

We have highly qualified teachers for the school’s approximately 500 students. Rhea has four preschool, 10 kindergarten, nine first grade, and nine second grade classes plus a Comprehensive Development Class to meet the needs of special learners,” said Hudgins. Class sizes range from 16 to 18 students per class.

Asked what types of festive entries the school would have in the parade,” Marketing Director Becky Cate said that she’s “not allowed to divulge highly sensitive, classified Christmas parade information,” but that parade goes need to be “ready to rock with our enthusiastic children and our fantastic faculty and staff.”

The mission of the Downtown Paris Association is to promote prosperous business activity and community involvement while encouraging preservation of the downtown Paris, TN area. For more information email DowntownParis@outlook.com or call 731-653-7274 (PARIS).

be candy and other Christmas goodies.”

The contest is divided into two age groups with a coloring page for kindergarten-second graders and a different page for third-fifth graders. Coloring sheets should be returned to the locations above before 5:00 pm on Saturday, December 8, the day of the Downtown Christmas Festival and Holly, Jolly, Electric Christmas Parade. Winners will be contacted by the DPA the following week.

Artist Ansley Cate’s sketches were chosen from a number of designs submitted by HCHS art students. A high school senior, Cate said that as a child, she “always did lots of activities related to Christmas, including coloring pictures and making crafts. I love knowing that I’m playing a part in getting local children into the Christmas spirit.”

“I’m proud of Ansley, whose sketches were chosen for both age groups,” said HCHS Art Instructor Greg Chandler. “A large number of students participated in this project, which was a great learning experience for them. Partnering with the DPA and giving back to our community is a treat,” he said.

Many of these pieces of art will find a home at K&B following the judging. “We plan to post as many pages from our young artists as possible for Santa to enjoy while he is in Downtown Paris on weekends,” said Evans.

For more information on the contest call Evans at 731-540-1222 or the DPA Office at 731-653-7274.
