What's Happening?

Lifeline Blood Services At Critically Low Level Lifeline Blood Services announced today that blood donations are once again at a critically low level and that they may run out of blood this week for hospitals in West Tennessee.

"If we do not see an increase in donors this week, it is quite possible that we will run out of blood for West Tennessee's hospitals," said Caitlin Roach, Marketing Manager with Lifeline. "We realize that people have a lot on their minds, but we are begging those who can donate blood to make giving a priority."

The low levels look the same across much of the country. Last week, the American Association of Blood Banks and America's Blood Centers issued a joint statement on the problem:

"Blood centers across the country are currently reporting low blood supplies... Fall is typically a time when the blood supply is more stable – If the nation's blood supply does not stabilize soon, hospitals may be forced to alter treatment for some patients or cancel some patient surgeries. Blood donations are needed now to help maintain optimal care for all patients."

"We are also continuing to feel the continued impact of the current staffing shortage," added Roach. "Pre-pandemic, we sent out three mobile units a day Monday-Friday. We are now down to two mobile drives a day – sometimes even one – due to our low number of staff."

"We have no substitute for blood, and we cannot get blood from other blood banks because the entire country is facing a shortage," said LIFELINE Blood Services Director of Community Services, Tonya Johnson. "We are urging anyone who can to please respond by giving blood as soon as possible."

Lifeline Blood Services has two centers for easy donation opportunities. The Jackson Center is located at 183 Sterling Farms Drive and is open Monday through Saturday from 9 a.m. – 6 p.m. The Dyersburg Center is located at 1130 Highway 51 Bypass and is open Saturday from 8 a.m. – 4 p.m. and Sunday, Monday, & Tuesday from 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. Walk-ins are welcome. To speak with someone about donating blood, call 731.427.4431, ext. 0.

Lifeline offers several suggestions for individuals who choose to donate, whether they are first-time donors, have not given in years, or donated as recently as eight weeks ago.

1. Drink a lot of water before you come by.
2. Eat a meal 4-6 hours before you donate.
3. Plan to spend an hour of your time – probably less – with us.
4. To shorten your visit, fill out your medical questionnaire online (lifelinebloodserv.org) before you come.

5. No appointment is necessary for whole blood donation— just walk in at your convenience.
6. Know that there is no wait time (also called a deferral period) between receiving a COVID-19 shot or flu shot and donating blood.
7. Know that you can donate blood whether or not you've received a COVID-19 vaccine—this vaccine does not impact whole blood donations.
8. You can also give blood if you've had COVID-19 so long as you've been symptom-free for 14 days.
9. Bring a friend with you to donate as well—it makes the process more fun.
10. Remember that each donation saves up to three lives— what other reason could you need?

Today, Lifeline provides blood services to 20 West Tennessee counties and two regional areas, supplying 17 local hospitals and 14 air ambulances. Annually, the Center collects approximately 26,000 blood products (red cell units, platelets, plasma, etc.) to meet the needs of patients. Lifeline also provides reference lab and cross- matching services to healthcare facilities.

Miss Pearl's Country Cookin'

Cheese Fondue

original recipe makes 5 servings

1 cup dry white wine
1/2 pound shredded Swiss cheese
1/2 pound shredded Gruyere cheese
2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1 (1 lb.) loaf French bread, cut into 1 in. cubes

Simmer wine in fondue pot. Add Swiss cheese, Gruyere cheese, 1/4 pound at a time. Stir after each addition of cheese until melted. Stir in flour. When all the cheese has melted, stir in salt and nutmeg. Serve with cut-up French bread.

Broccoli Cheese Casserole

original recipe makes 8 servings

1 (10.75 oz) can cream of mushroom soup
1 cup mayonnaise
1 egg, beaten
1/4 cup finely chopped onion
3 (10 oz) packages frozen chopped broccoli
8 oz shredded sharp Cheddar cheese
salt to taste
ground black pepper to taste
2 pinches paprika

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Butter a 9x13 inch baking dish. In a medium bowl, whisk together condensed cream of mushroom soup, mayonnaise, egg and onion. Place frozen broccoli into a very large mixing bowl. (I like to use my large stainless steel bowl to mix this recipe thoroughly.) Break up the frozen broccoli. Using a rubber spatula, scrape soup-mayonnaise mixture on top of broccoli, and mix well. Sprinkle on cheese and mix well. Spread mixture into prepared baking dish, and smooth top of casserole. Season to taste with salt, pepper and paprika. Bake for 45 minutes to 1 hour in the preheated oven.

Spare Ribs

original recipe makes 4 servings

1 (10.75 oz) can condensed tomato soup
1 onion, chopped
3 cloves garlic, minced
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
2 tablespoons soy sauce
2 pounds pork spareribs
1 teaspoon cornstarch (optional)
1/4 cup cold water (optional)

Place ribs in a large stock pot, and cover with water. Bring to a boil, and cook for 15 minutes. In a mixing bowl, mix together soup, onion, garlic, brown sugar, Worcestershire sauce, and soy sauce. Remove ribs from water, and transfer to a slow cooker. Pour sauce over ribs. Cover, and cook on Low for 6 to 8 hours, or until ribs are tender. If sauce is too thin when cooking time is done, drain sauce from ribs, and pour into a sauce pan. Combine 1 teaspoon cornstarch with a small amount of cold water, stir into sauce, and bring sauce to boil. Cook until sauce has reached desired thickness.

Pumpkin Chocolate Chip Cookies

Original recipe makes 2 dozen

1 cup canned pumpkin
1 cup white sugar
1/2 cup vegetable oil
1 egg
2 cups all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon milk
1 tablespoon vanilla extract
2 cups semisweet chocolate chips
1/2 cup chopped walnuts (optional)

Combine pumpkin, sugar, vegetable oil, and egg. In a separate bowl, stir together flour, baking powder, ground cinnamon, and salt. Dissolve the baking soda with the milk and stir in. Add flour mixture to pumpkin mixture and mix well. Add vanilla, chocolate chips and nuts. Drop by spoonful on greased cookie sheet and bake at 350 degrees F for approximately 10 minutes or until lightly brown and firm.
