Christmas Open House As the first of many open houses in the region, Downtown Unwrapped in Paris, Tennessee, kicks off November 5th-7th with food trucks, fire pits, live music, a car show, a shopping passport and more!

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 5TH:
Kicking off the weekend, food trucks will be ready for shoppers beginning at 5:00 PM and will stay open until 8:00 PM. Enjoy shopping in our historic downtown with a wide variety of retail options, all decked out for the upcoming holiday season. Be sure to grab a Passport to Christmas at any of the participating stores. When you spend money in one of those stores, you will receive a stamp on that page. The more stamps you receive, the more chances to win $1,000 in Downtown Dollars. Play from November 5th - December 11th.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6TH:
Plan to spend the day in Downtown Paris with a "Christmas Car Show" presented by Street Dynamics from 10:00 AM - 4:00 PM in the First United Methodist Church Parking Lot. Prizes will be awarded for first, second, and third place as well as People's Choice. Also at the car show, catch live music from Ethan Torsak from 10:30 AM - noon and Cherry Avenue from 12:30 PM - 2:00 PM. All proceeds from the car show will benefit the Downtown Paris Association.

Merison's Home Furnishings and Eagle Buildings are sponsoring the "Food Truck Court". Food trucks will be open throughout the day with live music kicking off on the courthouse steps at 11:00 AM from the Krider Performing Arts Center's group, Harmonix. At noon, enjoy Larry and Elaine Conger and their world renowned dulcimer music. No stranger to Paris, the University of Tennessee Martin Pacer Pans, a steel drum band, will take the steps at 2:00 PM to play holiday favorites. Britnee Kellogg has taken the internet by storm with her recent hit "Hey Mama" with millions of views on Tik-tok. She will kick off the evening at 5:00 PM. Randall French, John McDaniel, Leslie and Brooke Cooper, and Nikki Bobo are hometown favorites, and they will take the stage together to bring you their favorite Christmas tunes in our "Hometown Round" at 6:00 PM. The music is brought to you compliments of Jamie Orr with Orr Investment Management.

Enjoy festive shopping, collect passport stamps, and grab a free cup of coffee from Jack's Java 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM on Saturday. Simply show a receipt that you have shopped in Downtown Paris that day and our friends from Dynamix Physical Therapy will buy your drink as a "thank you" for shopping local during Christmas Open House.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 7TH:
From noon - 5:00 PM the festivities continue with more shopping, more food trucks, and more fun! Join the Paris-Henry County Bicentennial Committee at 2:00 PM on the courthouse lawn to celebrate the founding of Henry County with a proclamation, community choir performance, and tree planting.

Phase II Re-Entry Event Are you or someone you know having difficulties getting a job or apartment because of a criminal record? Do you have expungement rights? Have you lost your voting rights because of a criminal history? Would you like to find out how to turn it all around? Then please join Patriots Community Kitchen as we sponsor The Phase II Re-Entry Event Sunday, November 7th from 2-6pm in the Paris Civic Center Meeting Room. Let this be your first step in securing your future. Past mistakes don’t have to ruin your future.

Also, looking for any groups interested in setting up an info center or display about services they offer to those in this situation.

Paris-Henry County Bicentennial Kick-Off The community is invited to the kick-off for the Paris-Henry County Bicentennial Celebrations at 2 p.m. Sunday, November 7, at the Henry County Courthouse lawn.

The event will include proclamations from County Mayor John Penn Ridge-way and Paris Mayor Carlton Gerrell, with Henry County Historian David Webb as emcee.

Paris Special Schools Board President Troy Barrow will read a poem he wrote, “Trees We Will Never Climb” which will be followed by a tree-planting on the south side of the court lawn. The tree-planting will replace the oak tree which fell during severe storms in the spring.

The Community Choir, led by Jeremy O’Neal, will perform three songs, including “The Scene From The Hill” written by the late L.O. Sanderson several decades ago. The Community Choir has been rehearsing for the past several weeks.

Both Henry County and the city of Paris are celebrating their Bicentennials and activities will be held over the next two years. Henry County was formally established Nov. 7, 1821, and Paris was formed Sept. 23, 1823.

Miss Pearl's Country Cookin'

Buttermilk Fried Chicken
original recipe makes 4 servings
1 (3 lb.) fryer, cut into pieces
2 cups buttermilk
1 large onion, sliced
1/4 cup chopped mixed fresh herbs) or a teaspoon each of the dried herbs.
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper
2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
1/2 teaspoon onion salt
1 teaspoon cayenne pepper
Salt and pepper
2 cups canola oil, or other high smoke-point oil

Soak chicken overnight (at least 8 hours and up to two days) in buttermilk with onions, herbs, paprika, and cayenne pepper. Drain in a colander, leaving some of the herbs on chicken. In a large paper or plastic (sturdy) bag, mix flour with seasonings. Meanwhile, heat 2 cups of oil in a large, heavy-bottomed skillet (cast iron, stainless steel, or anodized aluminum - something that can take the heat) on medium high heat until a pinch of flour starts to sizzle when dropped in the hot oil (but not so hot that the pan is smoking). Remember when working with hot oil, always have a pan lid close by. Place chicken pieces in bag with flour and shake until thoroughly coated. Add chicken to hot pan and fry on 1 side for 12-15 minutes, until golden brown, and then use tongs to turn the pieces over and fry for another 10-12 minutes, again until golden brown. Be careful to keep the oil hot enough to fry the chicken, but not so high as it burns the chicken. To do this on our electric stove we have to alternate the settings between high to medium high several times while we are cooking. 4 Use tongs to remove chicken from pan. Place on a rack over a cookie sheet or broiling pan for the excess oil to drain. Add more salt and pepper to taste.

Chocolate Pudding
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup unsweetened cocoa powder
2 Tbsp cornstarch
Pinch of salt
2 cups whole milk
1 large egg
4 ounces semi-sweet chocolate chips
Four 6-ounce ramekins or custard cups

Whisk together the sugar, cocoa powder, cornstarch, and salt in a heavy 2-quart saucepan. Gradually whisk in the milk. Bring to a boil, whisking constantly, and boil, whisking, until pudding is thick, about 3 to 5 minutes. Remove from heat. Immediately beat the egg lightly in a medium, heat-proof bowl, such as a hard plastic or ceramic mixing bowl. Very gradually add the hot chocolate mixture to the egg, whisking constantly. Whisk in the chocolate chips until they are melted and the mixture is smooth. Pour the pudding into the ramekins or cups. If you want, cover the surface of each of the pudding cups with some cut out wax paper to prevent a skin from forming on the top of the pudding. Refrigerate, covered, until cold, at least 2 hours. Optional: Serve with whipped cream.

Cheese Biscuits
2 cups + 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
dash cayenne 3 oz. grated Parmesan
1/4 teaspoon salt cheese
1/2 teaspoon black pepper 3/4 cup buttermilk
2 teaspoons baking powder
7 tablespoons butter, cold
2 scallions, finely chopped

Kosher, Maldon, or Black salt for topping (optional; not table/iodized salt)
Preheat the oven to 425°F. In a large bowl whisk together the flour, cayenne, black pepper, baking powder, and salt. Set aside. Dice the butter into small pieces. If they get too warm then place them in a bowl and put it in the freezer for about 10 minutes before continuing. Toss the diced butter with the flour mixture until well coated. (Again, if into tossing the butter gets hot in your hands place the whole mixture in the freezer for a few minutes.) Add the scallions and cheese and toss until well coated. Add the buttermilk and mix with your hands until it just comes together. You may find you need an extra dribble of buttermilk, if so then go right ahead but do so judiciously. Do not over-knead. Roll the dough out onto a lightly floured surface. Knead once or twice; no more. Form into an 8x8-inch square and cut into 2x2-inch squares and top with a bit of high-quality salt if using. Bake for 12-16 minutes or until golden.
