Tennessee Hunting, Fishing

Licenses Now Valid For One Year

The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency is happy to announce hunting and fishing licenses and permits will be valid for one year from the date of purchase. All current yearly Tennessee hunting and fishing licenses expired Feb. 28.

Exceptions will be captive permits, Federal duck stamp, migratory bird permits, and slat basket tags.

Licenses are available online anytime at www.GoOutdoorsTennessee.com, on the TWRA "On the Go App," or at one of 474 license agents across the state. You can also select to auto-renew your license and never worry about your license expiring again. Customers can also purchase a new design of the collector's card for any annual license. The new waterproof, durable card features a choice of a smallmouth, Tennessee's state game fish, or a pair of deer.

If you like wildlife of any kind, you should thank a hunter or fisherman. Without them, the state would not have the abundance of fish and wildlife that Tennesseans enjoy.

Hunters and anglers have been funding Tennessee's and the nation's wildlife conservation for more than 100 years through license purchases. One-hundred percent of hunting and fishing license fees go to support wildlife conservation in Tennessee. What's more, a license purchase returns taxes paid on firearms, archery equipment, fishing gear and boat fuel to Tennessee at a rate of up to $40 per year so a license purchase is a great investment. This successful funding system is the Wildlife and Sportfish Restoration program which is the largest driver of wildlife conservation nationwide.

Litter Cleanup Day at Tennessee

NWR Duck River Early spring rains often bring great things, like flowers. However, the vast amount of rain recently has created flood conditions on portions of the Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge. One of those places, the Duck River Bottoms in Humphreys County has recently experienced flood conditions. Unfortunately, when the waters recede they often leave large amounts of unsightly trash that can also be death traps for many species of wildlife.

On Saturday, March 19th from 9:00 – 12:00, the refuge is holding a spring cleanup day themed “Save a Critter, Pick up Litter!” Anyone interested in helping can meet at the main Duck River Bottoms entrance at 550 Refuge Lane in New Johnsonville, TN. While there is no need to RSVP, attendees will need to wear long pants and wear close-toed shoes that might get dirty or muddy. Through a generous grant provided by the Tennessee Valley Authority, the refuge will provide all supplies needed for the day such as gloves, litter pickup sticks, trash bags, drinking water and snacks.

As a thank you for helping, those in attendance will be offered a free “Save a Critter, Pick up Litter” t-shirt, reusable trash bag or water bottle. “This will be a great day for individuals and families wanting to improve their natural environment” says Ranger Joan Howe. “This trash pick-up day can also be an opportunity for local scout troops, youth groups or 4-H clubs needing service hours. It is always a good day to come out to the refuge, please consider coming out to make the place a cleaner home for our wildlife!”

For more information about the “Save a Critter, Pick up Litter” public cleanup day, contact the refuge office at 731-642-2091.

Miss Pearl's Country Cookin'

Pecan Chicken Salad

½ cup mayonnaise
½ cup plain Greek yogurt
2 teaspoons white wine vinegar
½ teaspoon garlic powder
¼ teaspoon dried thyme
1/2 teaspoon Park Hill maple pepper
2 cups chopped cooked chicken
2 stalks celery, sliced
½ cup chopped toasted pecans
2 tablespoons minced red onion
Mix mayonnaise, Greek yogurt, vinegar, garlic powder, thyme, and maple pepper together in a bowl until well combined. Add chicken, celery, pecans, and red onion; stir well to incorporate. Serve immediately or refrigerate for up to 3 days.

Lemon Blueberry Cupcakes

Blueberry Jam:
1 ½ cups frozen blueberries
2 tablespoons white sugar
1 teaspoon lemon juice

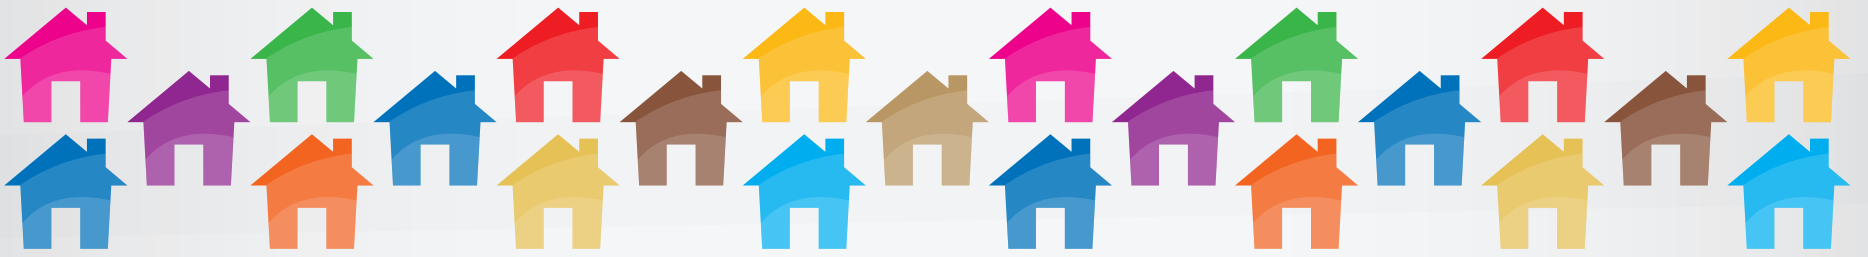

Cupcakes:
1 ¾ cups all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup white sugar
½ cup unsalted butter, softened
2 large eggs, at room temperature
3 tablespoons lemon juice

1 ½ tablespoons lemon zest
½ teaspoon vanilla extract
¾ cup buttermilk, at room temp
1 ½ cups frozen blueberries
1 tablespoon all-purpose flour

Frosting:
1 cup unsalted butter, softened
2 teaspoons lemon zest
1 ½ teaspoons lemon juice
½ teaspoon salt
3 ½ cups powdered sugar
1 tablespoon heavy cream

Combine frozen blueberries, sugar, and lemon juice for jam in a small pot over medium heat; bring to a simmer. Cook, stirring occasionally, until mixture has reduced and thickened, about 12 minutes. Remove from the heat. Pour mixture through a fine mesh sieve, pressing solids to extract as much jam as possible; you should have approximately 1/4 cup. Discard any solids and refrigerate jam until completely cool, at least 30 minutes. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Line 18 muffin cups with paper liners. Whisk flour, baking powder, and salt for cupcakes together in a small bowl. Cream sugar and butter together in a large bowl until light and fluffy. Mix in lemon juice, lemon zest, and vanilla until combined. Add flour mixture in 2 batches, alternating with buttermilk, beating batter just until combined after each addition; batter will be somewhat thick. Place frozen blueberries in a small bowl and toss with flour until coated. Add to the batter and fold to incorporate. Spoon batter into the prepared muffin cups, filling each one 3/4 full. Bake in the preheated oven for 20 minutes. Check to see if a toothpick inserted into the centers comes out clean, and continue to bake, if needed, for 4 to 8 more minutes. Cool in the pans for 5 minutes before removing to a wire rack to cool completely, about 20 minutes more. While the cupcakes are cooling, remove blueberry jam from the refrigerator. Measure out 1/4 cup for the frosting and reserve any extra for another use. Beat butter for frosting in a large bowl until creamy and smooth. Add 1 cup powdered sugar, lemon zest, lemon juice, and salt; beat until thoroughly combined. Add 1/4 cup blueberry jam and mix until combined. Add 1 cup powdered sugar and mix until smooth. Repeat with remaining 1 1/2 cups powdered sugar. Add heavy cream and beat until frosting is smooth and fluffy, 1 to 2 minutes more. Frost cooled cupcakes.
