Springtime in Paris: Shopping

Extravaganza Come out to the Paris Convention Center on Saturday, March 5th from 9am – 5pm for the 7th annual SpringTime in Paris: Shopping Extravaganza! There will be over 60 small businesses & vendors: Home Décor, Clothing Boutiques, Jewelry, Food Trucks, Furniture and so much more! Bring the family out for Spring Mini Photo Sessions by Teke Photography, face painting, Food Trucks & more! Plan your Saturday to support Henry County by shopping local, getting family photos made & having fun!

This event is organized and hosted by two sisters born & raised in Henry County. Jennifer Amburgey Clark & Megan Amburgey Gordon have a passion for helping small businesses thrive! They are Scentsy Consultants that have been organizing vendor events in Henry County for over 10 years. Those annual events include SpringTime in Paris in March, HC SummerFest in June and Christmas in Paris in November.

Tennessee Hunting, Fishing Licenses Now Valid For One Year

The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency is happy to announce hunting and fishing licenses and permits will be valid for one year from the date of purchase. All current yearly Tennessee hunting and fishing licenses expired Feb. 28.

Exceptions will be captive permits, Federal duck stamp, migratory bird permits, and slat basket tags.

Licenses are available online anytime at www.GoOutdoorsTennessee.com, on the TWRA "On the Go App," or at one of 474 license agents across the state. You can also select to auto-renew your license and never worry about your license expiring again. Customers can also purchase a new design of the collector's card for any annual license. The new waterproof, durable card features a choice of a smallmouth, Tennessee's state game fish, or a pair of deer.

If you like wildlife of any kind, you should thank a hunter or fisherman. Without them, the state would not have the abundance of fish and wildlife that Tennesseans enjoy.

Hunters and anglers have been funding Tennessee's and the nation's wildlife conservation for more than 100 years through license purchases. One-hundred percent of hunting and fishing license fees go to support wildlife conservation in Tennessee. What's more, a license purchase returns taxes paid on firearms, archery equipment, fishing gear and boat fuel to Tennessee at a rate of up to $40 per year so a license purchase is a great investment. This successful funding system is the Wildlife and Sportfish Restoration program which is the largest driver of wildlife conservation nationwide.

Refuge. One of those places, the Duck River Bottoms in Humphreys County has recently experienced flood conditions. Unfortunately, when the waters recede they often leave large amounts of unsightly trash that can also be death traps for many species of wildlife.

On Saturday, March 19th from 9:00 – 12:00, the refuge is holding a spring cleanup day themed “Save a Critter, Pick up Litter!” Anyone interested in helping can meet at the main Duck River Bottoms entrance at 550 Refuge Lane in New Johnsonville, TN. While there is no need to RSVP, attendees will need to wear long pants and wear close-toed shoes that might get dirty or muddy. Through a generous grant provided by the Tennessee Valley Authority, the refuge will provide all supplies needed for the day such as gloves, litter pickup sticks, trash bags, drinking water and snacks.

As a thank you for helping, those in attendance will be offered a free “Save a Critter, Pick up Litter” t-shirt, reusable trash bag or water bottle. “This will be a great day for individuals and families wanting to improve their natural environment” says Ranger Joan Howe. “This trash pick-up day can also be an opportunity for local scout troops, youth groups or 4-H clubs needing service hours. It is always a good day to come out to the refuge, please consider coming out to make the place a cleaner home for our wildlife!”

For more information about the “Save a Critter, Pick up Litter” public cleanup day, contact the refuge office at 731-642-2091.

The Shepherd’s Table The Shepherd’s Table will serve a take out supper when they meet on the first Thursday of March at the First Presbyterian Church of Paris. The take out service will begin at 4:30 pm, March 3rd, at the Fellowship Hall, located at 105 S. Market St., next to the Post office in Downtown Paris.

Meals will be served curbside only. The volunteers ask that you approach the church on Blythe St. and park by the gate next to the church playground. Overflow traffic will be directed to the First Presbyterian parking lot across the street from the church and instructed to move curbside as space becomes available.

More information about volunteering or donating to the Shepherd’s Table may be obtained by calling The First Presbyterian Church of Paris, at (731) 642-2962. If no answer, please leave a message,

4 tablespoons honey
5 lemons
4 teaspoons dried dill weed
1 teaspoon dried oregano
1 teaspoon dried basil
½ teaspoon garlic powder
salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
4 tablespoons butter

Preheat the oven to 425 degrees F. Set chicken breasts into a shallow casserole dish and brush 1 tablespoon honey onto each breast. Zest 1 lemon, then cut in half. Slice remaining lemons. Squeeze juice from 1 lemon over the tops of the chicken breasts and sprinkle with lemon zest. Combine dill, oregano, basil, garlic powder, salt, and pepper in a small bowl and sprinkle spices on top of the chicken. Cover chicken breasts with lemon slices and set 1 tablespoon butter on each piece of chicken breast. Bake until chicken is no longer pink in the center and the juices run clear, about 40 minutes. An instant-read thermometer inserted into the center should read at least 165 degrees F.

Mushroom Risotto

6 cups chicken broth, divided
3 tablespoons olive oil, divided
1 pound portobello mushrooms, thinly sliced
1 pound white mushrooms, thinly sliced
2 shallots, diced
1 ½ cups Arborio rice
½ cup dry white wine
sea salt to taste
freshly ground black pepper to taste
3 tablespoons finely chopped chives
4 tablespoons butter
½ cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese

In a saucepan, warm the broth over low heat. Warm 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large saucepan over medium-high heat. Stir in the mushrooms, and cook until soft, about 3 minutes. Remove mushrooms and their liquid, and set aside. Add 1 tablespoon olive oil to skillet, and stir in the shallots. Cook 1 minute. Add rice, stirring to coat with oil, about 2 minutes. When the rice has taken on a pale, golden color, pour in wine, stirring constantly until the wine is fully absorbed. Add 1/2 cup broth to the rice, and stir until the broth is absorbed. Continue adding broth 1/2 cup at a time, stirring continuously, until the liquid is absorbed and the rice is al dente, about 15 to 20 minutes. Remove from heat, and stir in mushrooms with their liquid, butter, chives, and parmesan. Season with salt and pepper to taste.
