fresh salads, and a long line of appetizers. “It’s something like an Applebee’s,” Patel said. “It’s family-friendly, with sports on the TV and good food.”

The development has been planned for over a year and has been presented to the Paris Municipal Regional Planning Commission as the phases are developed. It will be located at 1355 E. Wood St. near the intersection with Fairgrounds Rd.

When Orr first presented the development to the planning commission and city commission, he said from the beginning he hoped to have a restaurant included in the plans. The development will include Orr’s financial planning office, a branch of Holley Credit Union, convenience store and now the restaurant.

Phase 1 of the development was approved at the planning commission’s May meeting and the latest plans were approved at the commission’s meeting Thursday evening contingent on TDOT permits.

Orr earlier announced he would be tearing down the building which formerly housed the Wing-N-It restaurant, which closed earlier this year.

Miss Pearl's Country Cookin'

Low Country Boil
1 tablespoon seafood seasoning (such as Old Bay®), or to taste
5 pounds new potatoes
3 (16 ounce) packages cooked kielbasa sausage, cut into 1 inch pieces 8 ears fresh corn, husks and silks removed 5 pounds whole crab, broken into pieces
4 pounds fresh shrimp, peeled and deveined

Heat a large pot of water over an outdoor cooker, or on the stovetop over medium-high heat. Add seafood seasoning to taste and bring to a boil. Add potatoes and sausage and cook for 10 minutes. Break corn ears in half; add corn and crab and cook for another 5 minutes. Add shrimp when potatoes are almost tender and everything else is almost done; cook until shrimp are just cooked through, 3 to 4 minutes longer. Drain off and discard the water. Pour the contents out onto a picnic table covered with newspaper.

Hamburger Potato Casserole
1 pound lean ground beef
3 cups peeled and thinly sliced potatoes
1 (10.75 oz.) can condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ cup chopped onion
¾ cup milk
salt to taste
freshly ground pepper, to taste
1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. In a medium skillet over medium heat, brown the ground beef; drain fat. In a medium mixing bowl, combine cream of mushroom soup, onion, milk, salt and pepper to taste. Alternately layer the potatoes, soup mixture and meat in a 11x7 inch (2 quart) baking dish. Bake in the preheated oven for 1 to 1 1/2 hours, or until potatoes are tender. Top with Cheddar cheese, and continue baking until cheese is melted.
