Children's Librarian Kayla Nation of the W.G. Rhea Public Library will present the Children's Story Hour on Mondays, June 13, 20, 27 and July 11 at 10:30 a.m. These free events are hosted by the Historic Atkins-Porter Neighborhood Association (HAPNA). An adult must accompany all children. Adults should bring their own chairs.

HAPNA Hosts Children's

Summer Edutainment The "summer slide" is a term that describes the educational regression that children can experience during summer months when school is not in session. The Historic Atkins-Porter Neighborhood Association (HAPNA) can help children stay engaged with fun, learning activities in the HAPNA Botanical Garden.

In 2021, the group partnered with the W.G. Rhea Public Library and hosted Children's Story Hour in the botanical garden, according to HAPNA President Rachel Terrell. "This was extremely successful, so this year, we added "Tree Talk," a series from the Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge (TNWR)," she says.

W.G. Rhea Children's Librarian Kayla Nation, will read children's books weekly and bringing related crafts for the youngsters. New this year, TNWR Ranger Joan Howe will offer fun presentations and hands-on activities about all things tree related. Sessions are aimed at children K-6th grade.

Ranger Howe's programs will be held each Thursday in June at 10:30 in the garden. An adult must accompany all children. Adults should bring their own chairs. All events are free.

"We hope these events encourage parents and caregivers to take part in other outstanding programs at our local library and wildlife refuge," says Terrell. "There are endless things to see and do at the W.G. Rhea Public Library in Downtown Paris and at the Tennessee National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center, just 15 minutes from Paris. Farmers Market To Open At Holly

Fork A Farmers Market will be set up this season each Friday at the Holly Fork Shooting Complex on Hwy. 79N.

Organizer Alice Scarbrough said it will start this Friday, with vendors setting up at 1 p.m. and open to customers from 2-6 p.m.

A meeting of vendors was held last night and Scarbrough said, "It was a good meeting" and several vendors have already signed up.

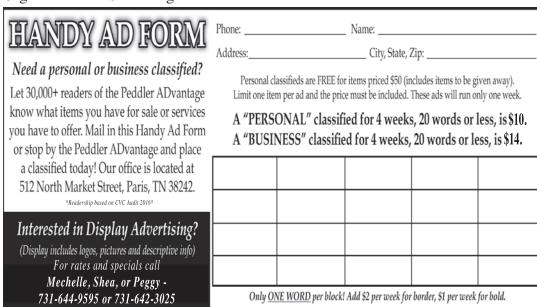

She said anyone can call her at 731-707-1167 for information or inquiring about being a vendor.

The market will be set up in the parking lot and vendors will bring their own tents.

The Henry County Farmers Market committee at the fairgrounds had announced earlier it would not be open this year due to the pavilion at the fairgrounds being painted and scheduling conflicts.

NOTE: It is free to submit an event to be published in the What's Happening section. However, the section is published only in the space provided, which varies per week. Submissions are not guaranteed to run and editorial selection is determined by the Peddler staff. To ensure your submission will run in the Peddler, an announcement classified or display ad may be purchased by contacting your sales representative.

Miss Dearl's Country Cookin'

Bacon Potato Salad

cups water, or enough to cover

pound red potatoes, scrubbed and cut into quarters

yellow onion, diced

slices thick-cut bacon, cut into 1-inch squares 2 stalks celery, diced

4 cup mild yellow pepper rings, drained

cup mayonnaise

tablespoon Dijon mustard

teaspoon prepared horseradish

2 tablespoons juice from yellow pepper rings

½ teaspoon lemon juice

Creole seasoning, or to taste

Stir salt into water in a large pot and add potatoes; bring to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low and simmer until tender, about 20 minutes. Drain and cool. Slice potatoe and place in a large bowl. Cook and stir yellow onion, bacon, celery, and pepper rings in a skillet until bacon is browned and celery begins to soften, about 10 minutes. Mix mayonnaise, Dijon mustard, horseradish, pepper juice, lemon juice, and Creole season ing together in a bowl until well blended. Add bacon mixture and dressing to potatoes; stir to combine. Refrigerate for 30 minutes before serving.

Honey-Garlic Shrimp

pound large raw shrimp (16-20 count),

peeled and deveined tablespoon minced fresh garlic

2 tablespoons honey teaspoon freshly grated ginger tablespoon soy sauce, or more to taste teaspoon Asian fish sauce, or to taste teaspoons vegetable oil cup thinly sliced green onion, or to taste

Make sure shrimp are fully thawed and well drained. Keep in the refrigerator while you nake the marinade. Whisk garlic, honey, ginger, soy sauce, and fish sauce together in bowl. Add shrimp and toss thoroughly with a spatula for 2 minutes until completely coated. Cover with plastic wrap and marinate in the refrigerator for 30 to 60 minutes; oss occasionally while marinating. Brush a large nonstick skillet with oil and heat over nigh heat until you begin to see small wisps of smoke. Use tongs to immediately transfer shrimp into the hot skillet in a single layer. Set excess marinade aside. Sear shrimp for 2 minutes, then flip over. Dump in marinade and cook for 1 minute. Turn off heat and flip hrimp once more; let sit for about 1 minute. The marinade in the pan will reduce down to a beautiful glaze just from the residual heat in the pan. Garnish with green onion.
