What's Happening?

A Message from the Paris Board of Public Utilities

It's in the forecast for us to receive sub-freezing temperatures for highs later this week, through Christmas weekend. We want to help you prepare as we enter winter full force:

- Disconnect your hoses – leaving a hose outside in cold weather can cause any water inside it to freeze.
- Let faucets drip – a steady water flow helps maintain a safe water pressure and prevent water from freezing inside your pipes.

- Insulate exposed fixtures – keep exposed faucets, spigots, and pipes as warm as possible.
- Make sure your foundation vents are closed to prevent freezing temps in your crawl space.
- Make sure your heating system's filter is clean.
- Check on elderly neighbors & family members living alone.
- Take care of your pets, too!

In the event of utility disruption, please call 731-642-1322 or report an outage via the MyBPU app.

Attendees to the 2022 Tim Alsobrooks Free Christmas Movie wait in line for drinks and snacks at the Parsian Theatre.

Attendees to the 2022 Tim Alsobrooks Free Christmas Movie settle into their seats in anticipation for How the Grinch Stole Christmas at the Parsian Theatre.

Tim Alsobrooks Free Christmas Movie is a Big Success

A new Christmas tradition in Paris is the Annual Tim Alsobrooks Free Christmas Movie at the Parsian Theatre. A large crowd gathered to watch How the Grinch Stole Christmas starring Jim Carrey as everyone’s favorite bad guy. The event was sponsored by The Peddler ADvantage and Forever Communications.

Tim Alsobrooks, who was the News Director and morning

DJ with WMUF, was a big fan of Christmas. Along with the radio stations he started the Free Christmas Movie. Tim left us way too soon but his memory lives on each year with this event. The crowd was also surprised when Tim’s mom and aunt attended the event.

We want to give a shout out to Lori and Larry at the Parsian for their generosity. We truly appreciate everyone that attended.

Mechelle, John and Shea stop to pose with two very special guests at the 2022 Tim Alsobrooks Free Christmas Movie at the Parsian Theatre. Tim’s aunt, Allison (far left), and Tim’s mom, Kim (center), came to enjoy the movie and celebrate Tim’s memory.
