What's Happening?

April is Homeschool Month at the Woodlands Nature Station

Calling all homeschool families! The Friends of Land Between the Lakes invites you to use the outdoors as your classroom this April at the Woodlands Nature Station. All month long, homeschoolers can pick up a Nature Discovery Activity Booklet and complete activities to earn a Nature Discovery patch! All activities are included with Nature Station admission, which is $7 for ages 16 and up and FREE for ages 15 and under.

Pick up a "Nature Discovery Activity Book" at the Woodlands Nature Station front desk and use it to guide you through a variety of exploration activities that will help you learn about nature through all sorts of subjects! This year's theme is "Fun and Games"! Books and activities are available at the Woodlands Nature Station daily from 10am-5pm.

If you complete your activity book and attend at least two programs at Nature Station during April, you can earn your official
